

2019 Commonwealth Fund International Health Policy Survey of Primary Care Physicians

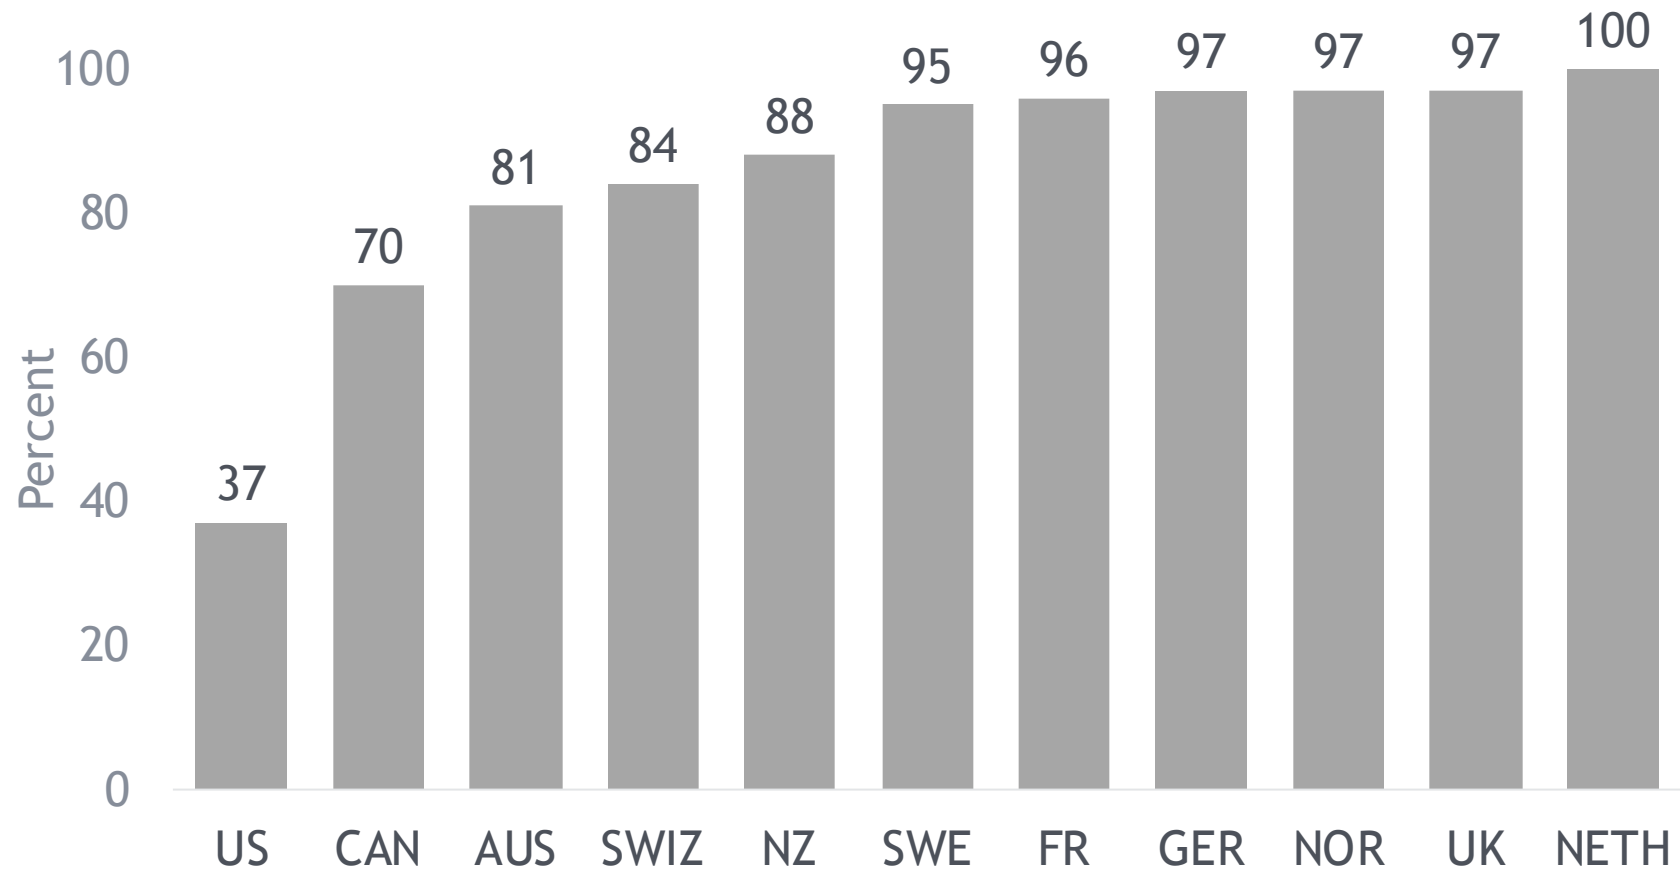

Chartpack for:

Michelle M. Doty, Roosa Tikkanen, Arnav Shah, and Eric C. Schneider, “Primary Care Physicians’ Role in Coordinating Medical and Health-Related Social Needs in Eleven Countries,” Health Affairs, published online Dec. 10, 2019.

The Commonwealth
Fund

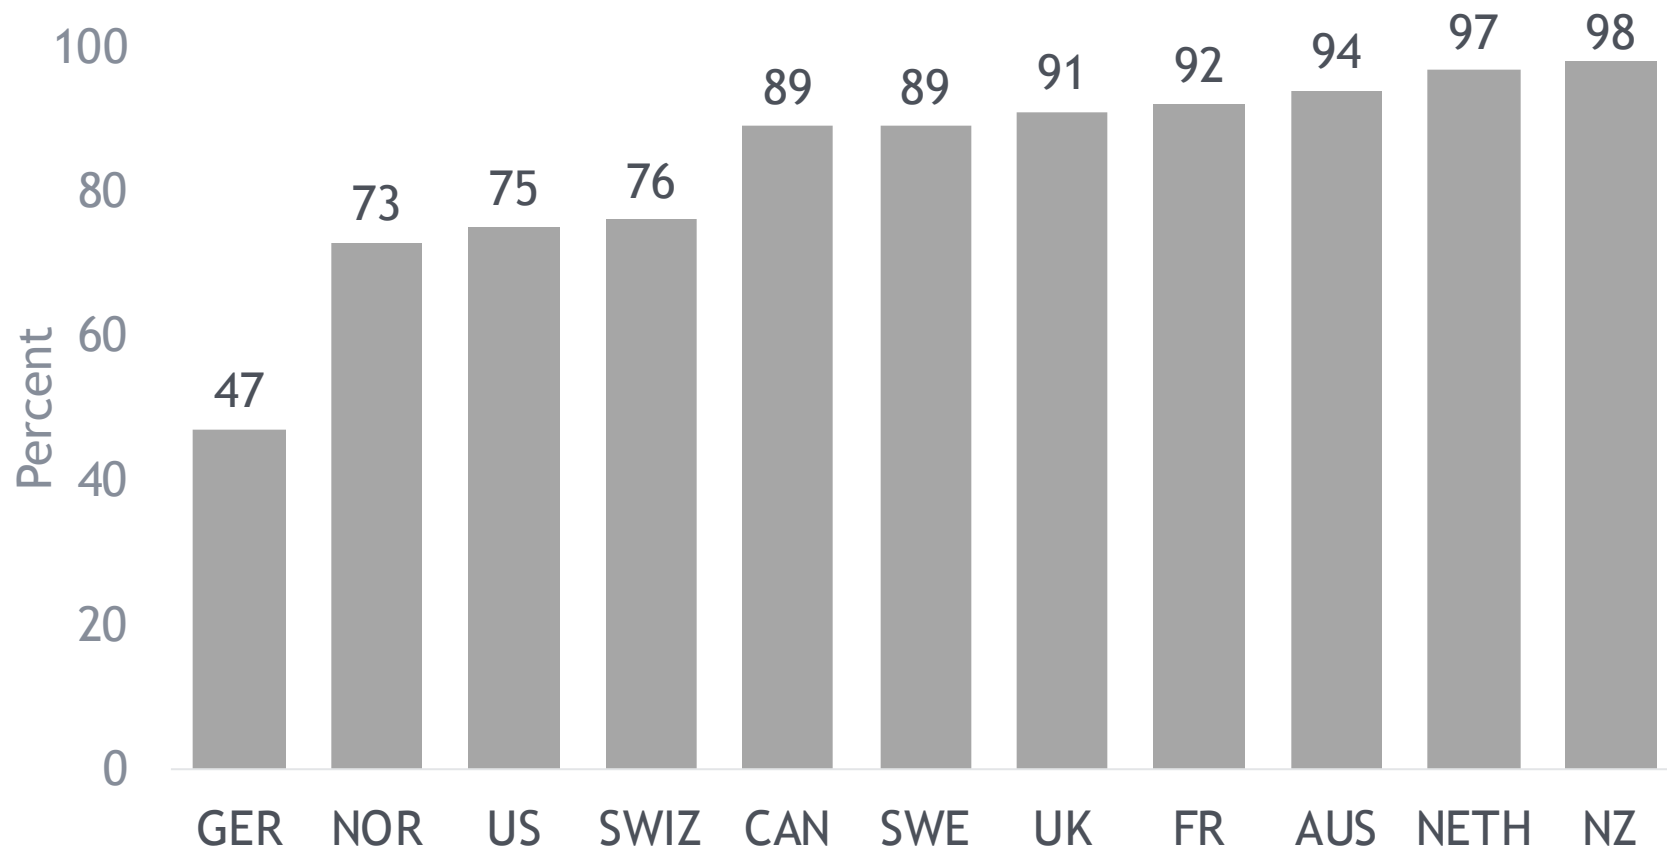

Primary care physician or other health care professional at practice frequently or occasionally makes home visits

Practice has arrangements where patients can be seen when practice is closed (not including the ER)

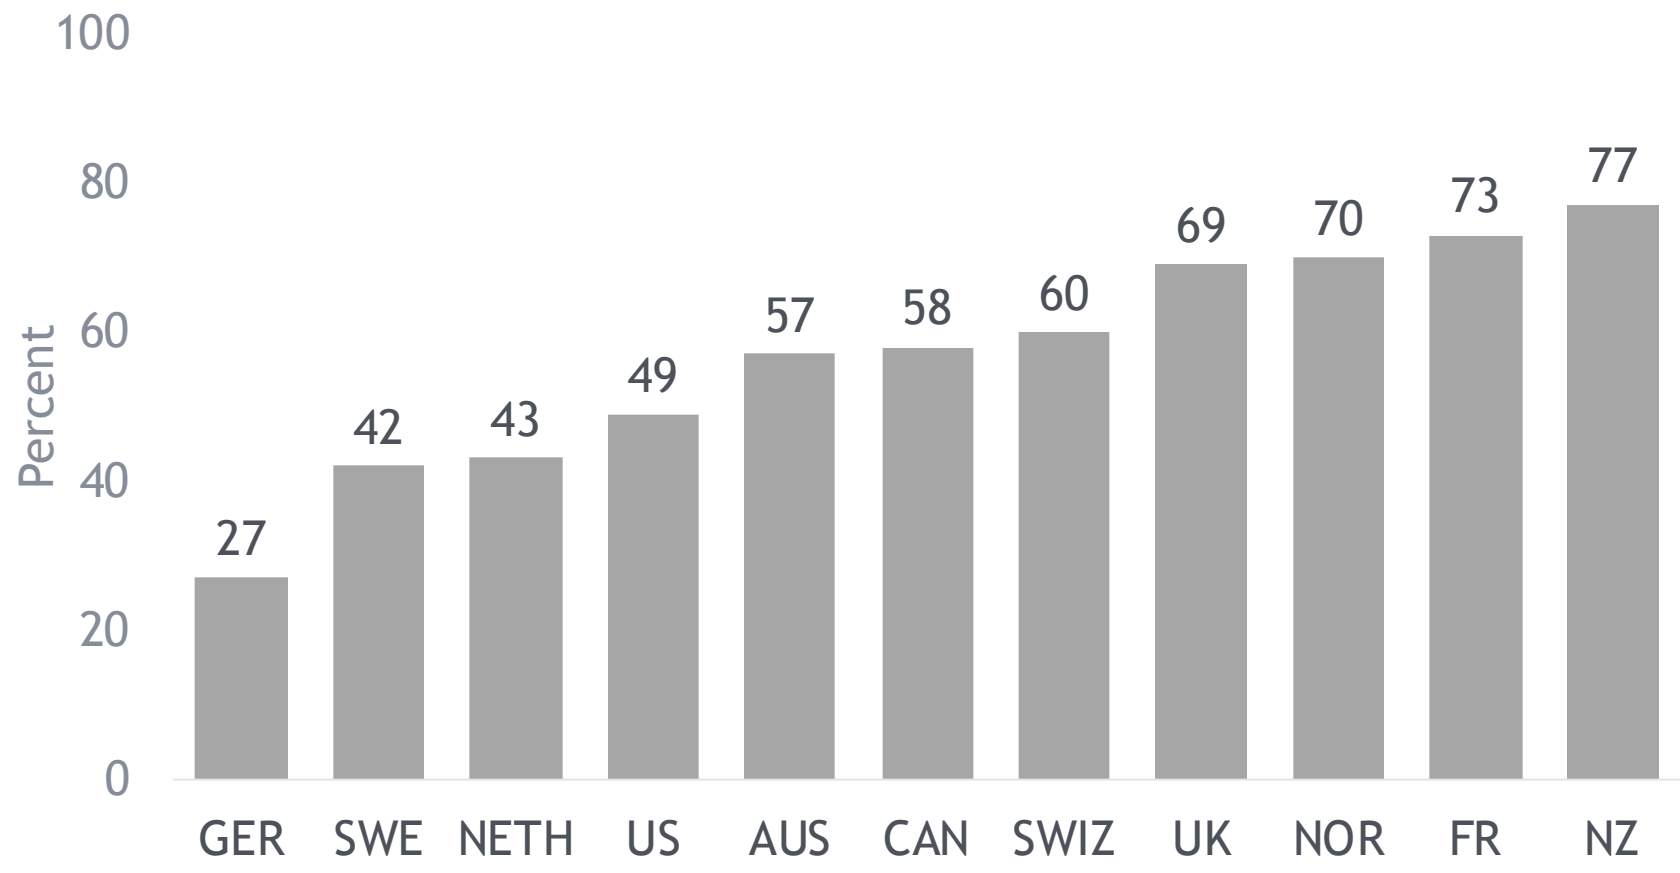

Specialist coordination:
Usually sends patient history and reason for consultation

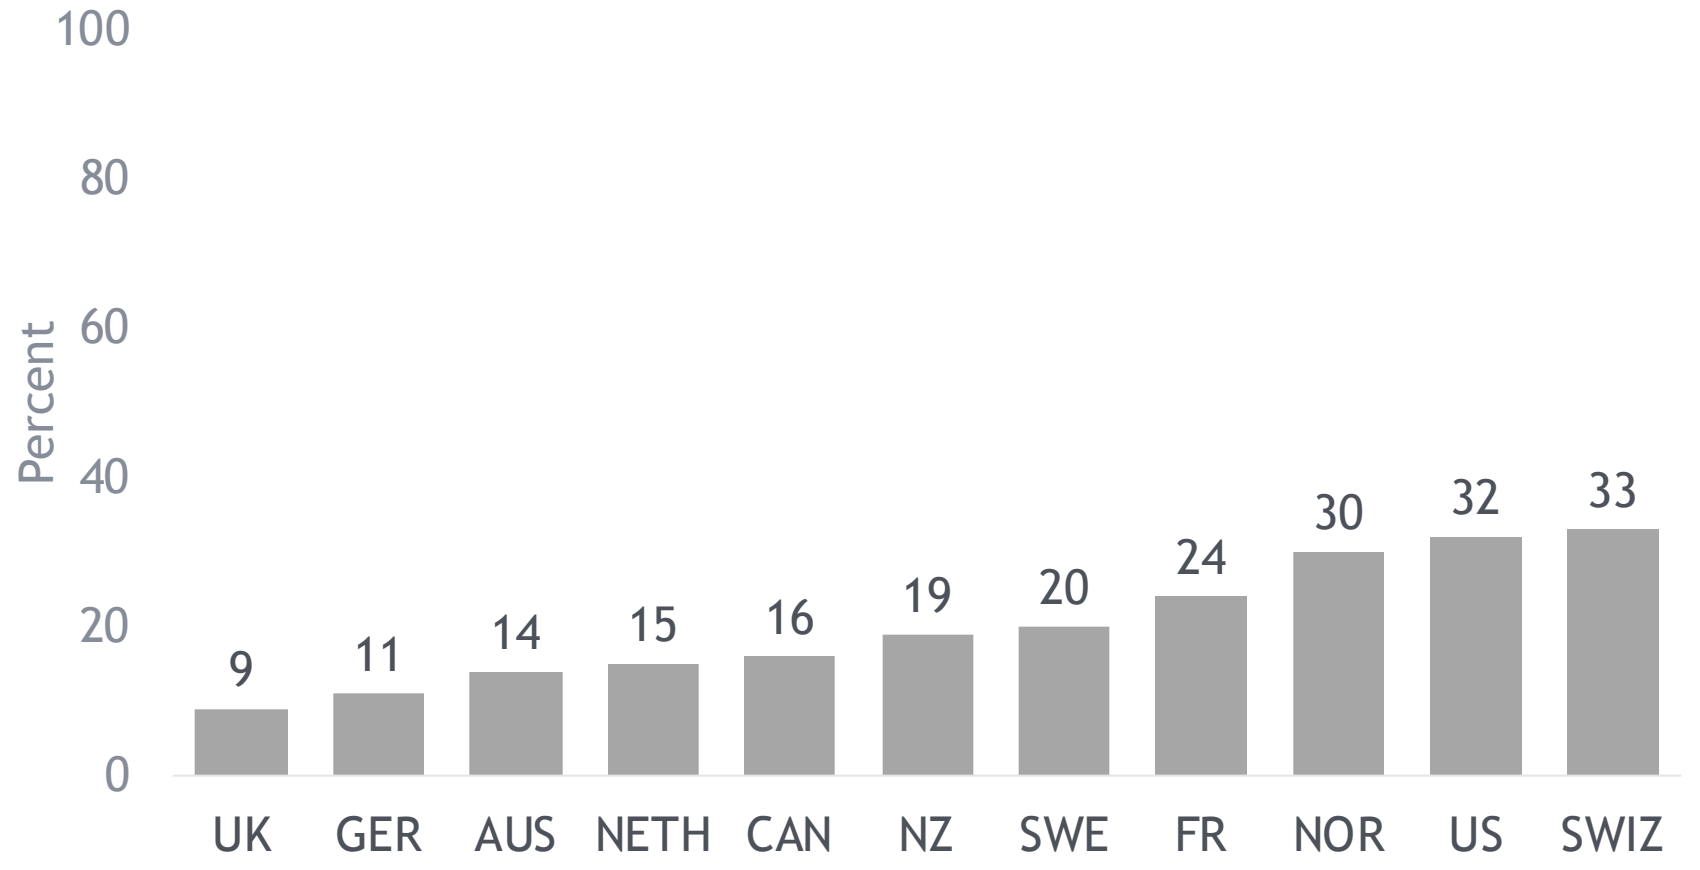

Specialist coordination:

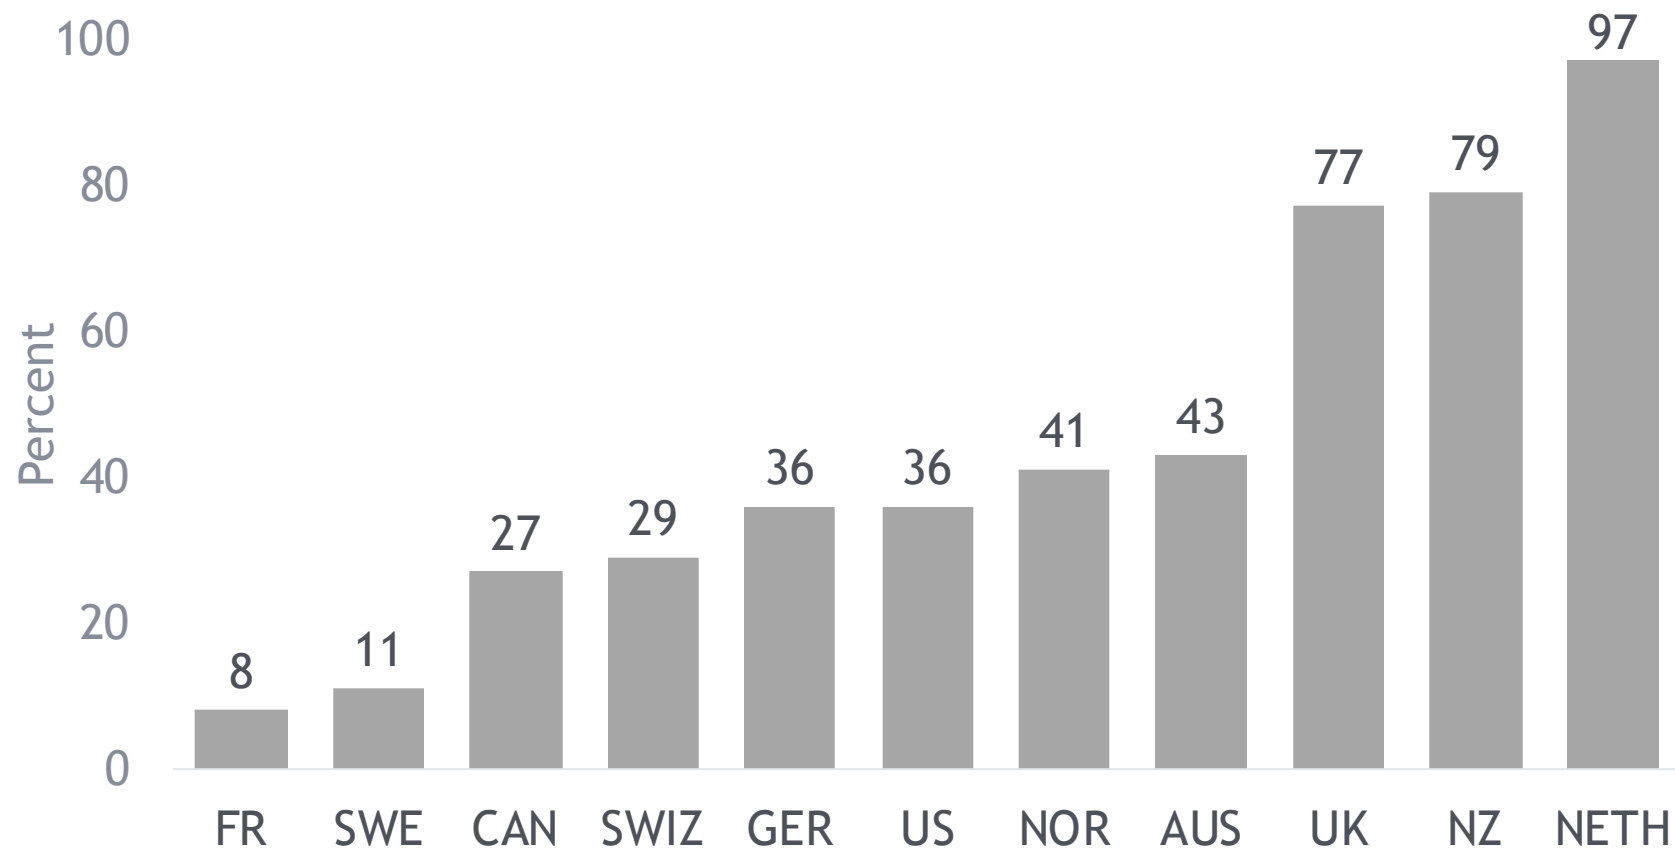

Usually is informed about changes to patient's medication or care plan

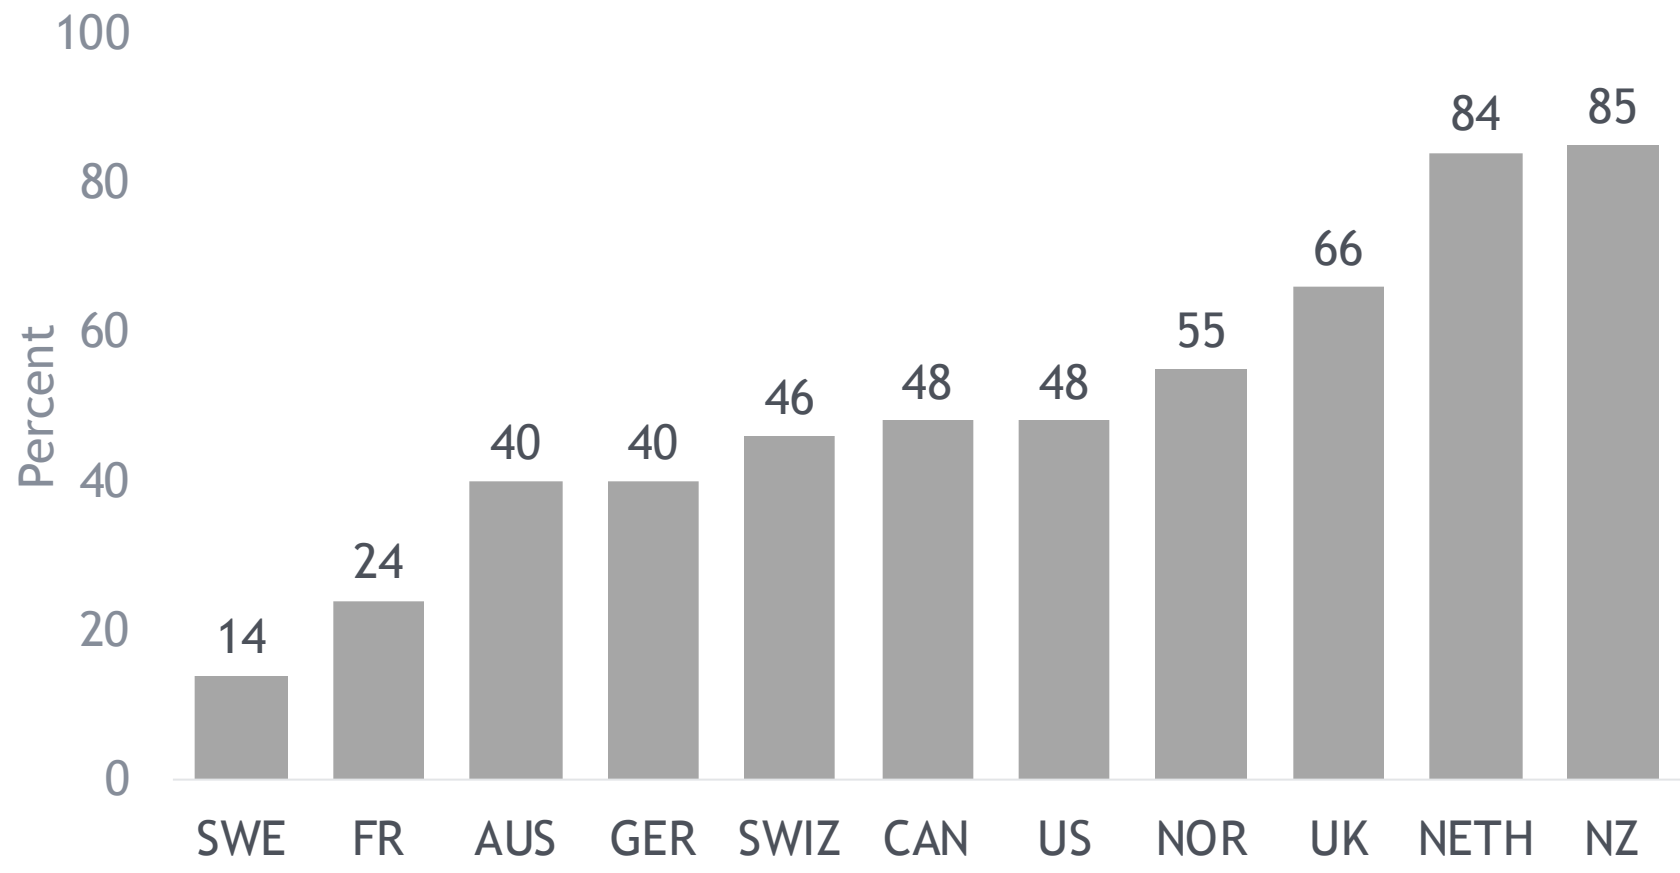

Specialist coordination:
Usually receives results from specialist within 1 week

After-hours coordination: Usually notified when patient seen for after-hours care

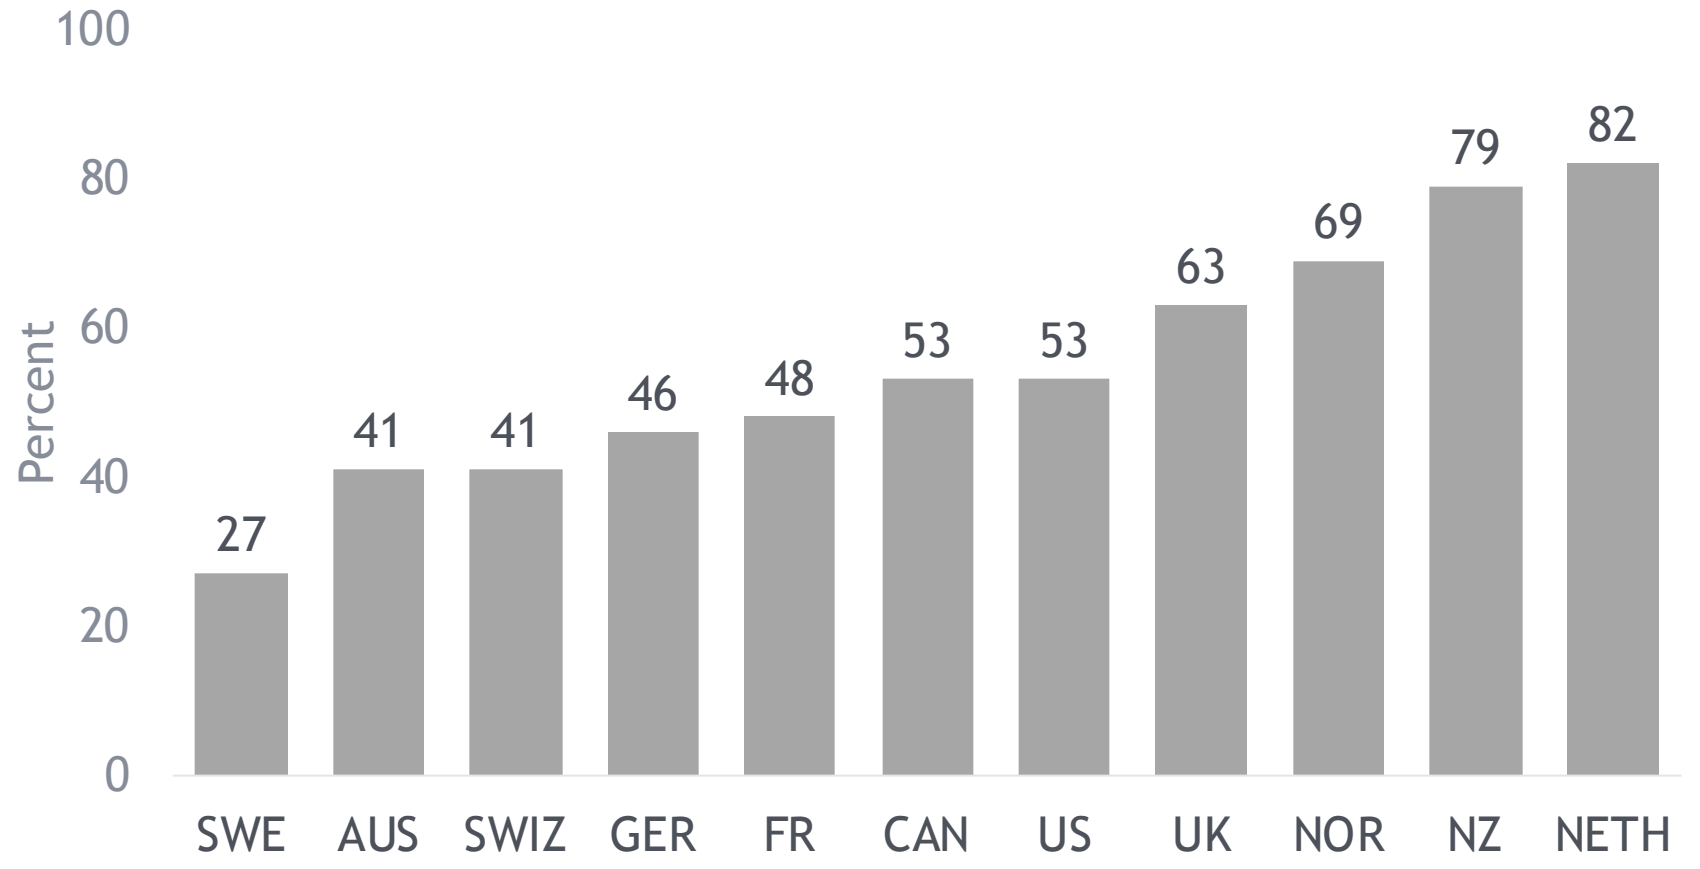

Emergency Department coordination: Usually notified when patient has been seen in an ED

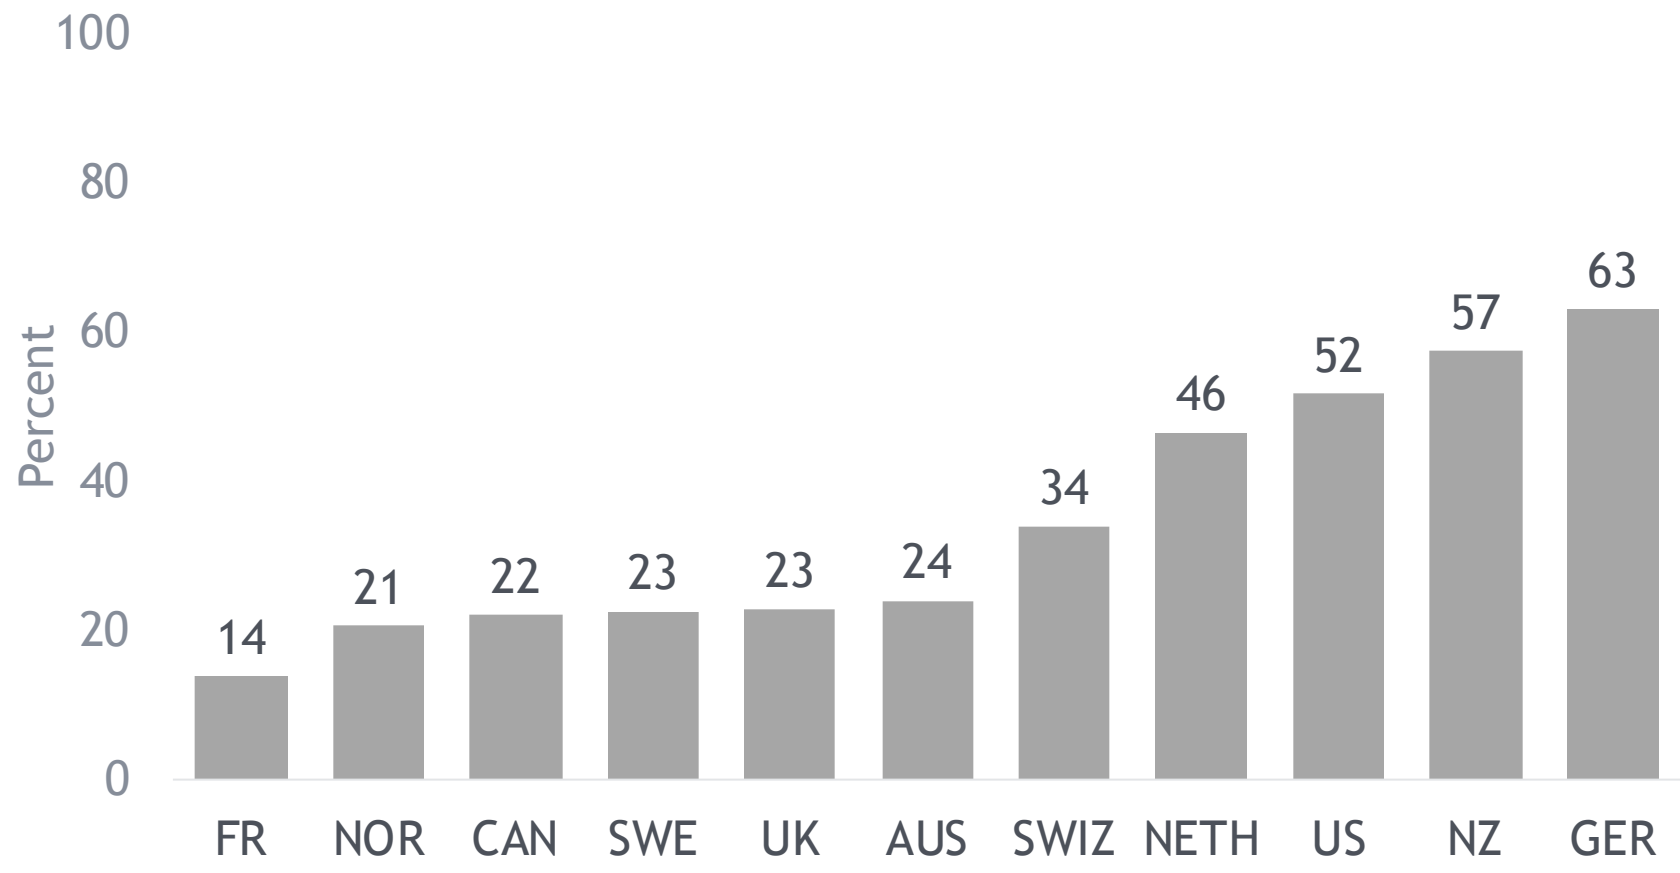

Hospital care coordination:

Usually notified when patient has been admitted

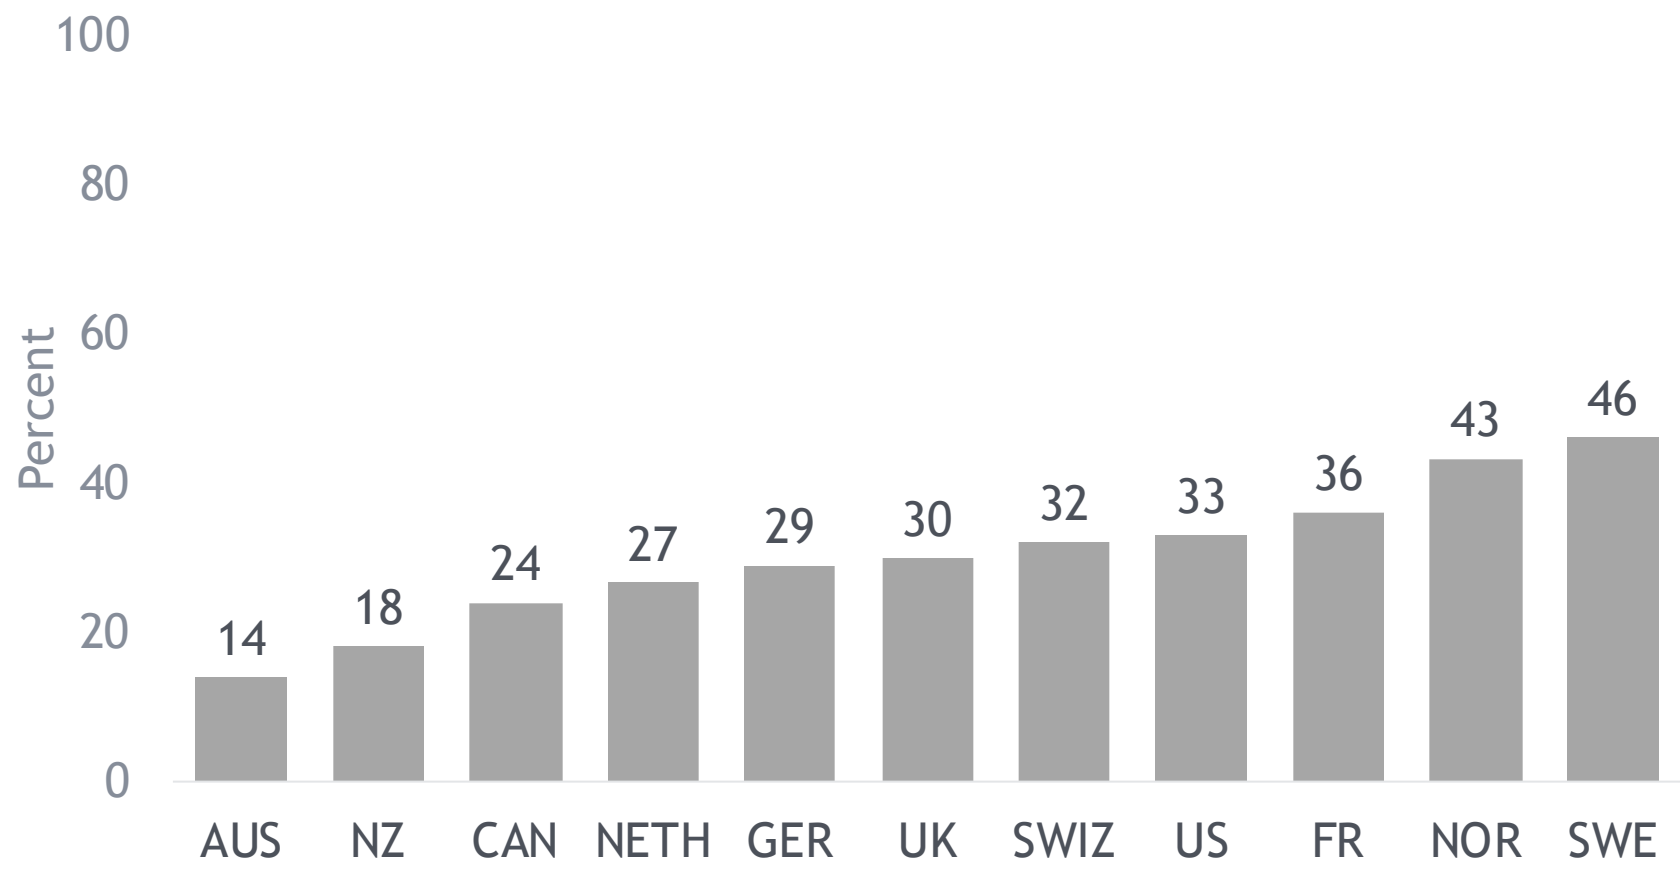

Hospital care coordination:

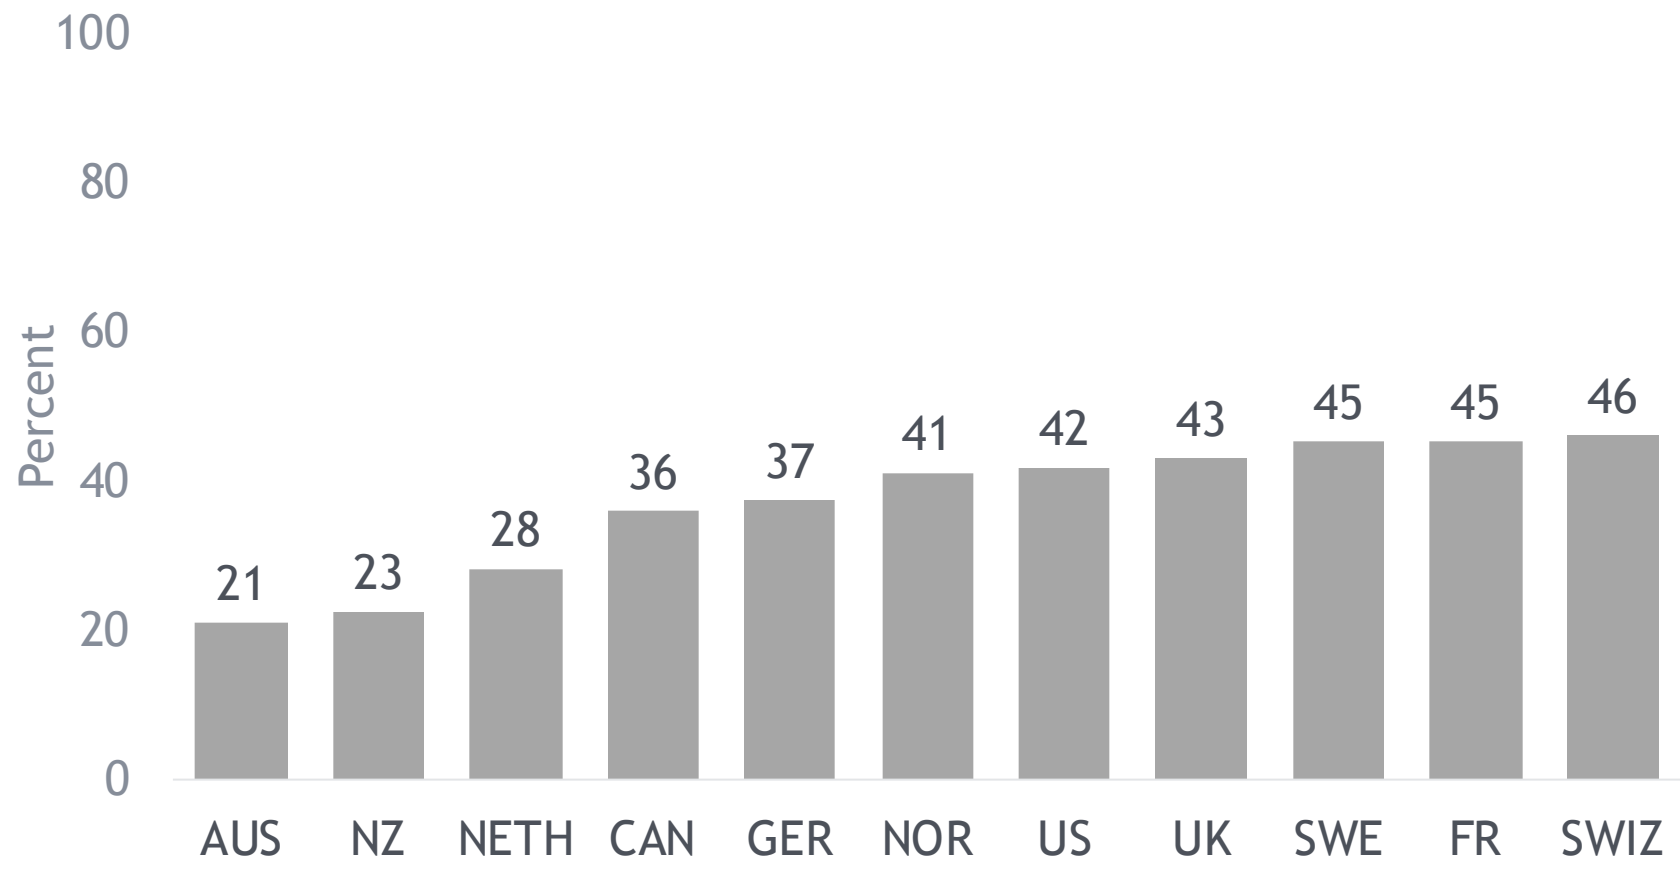

Following discharge, information needed to continue managing patient received ≤ 48 hours

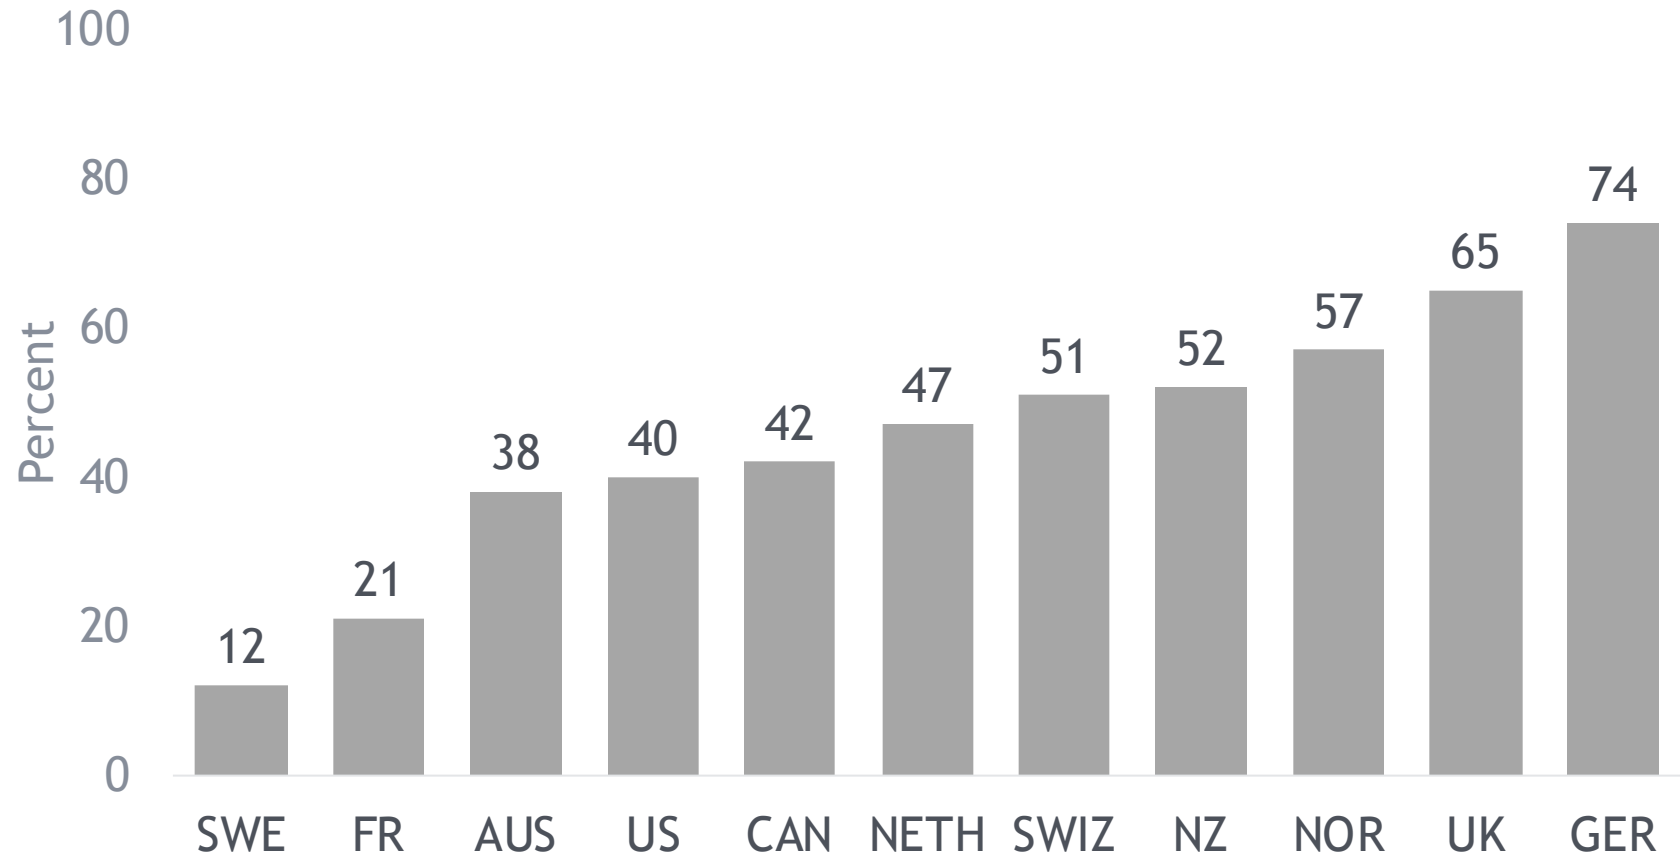

Home-based nursing provider coordination: Usually communicates about patient needs and services to be provided

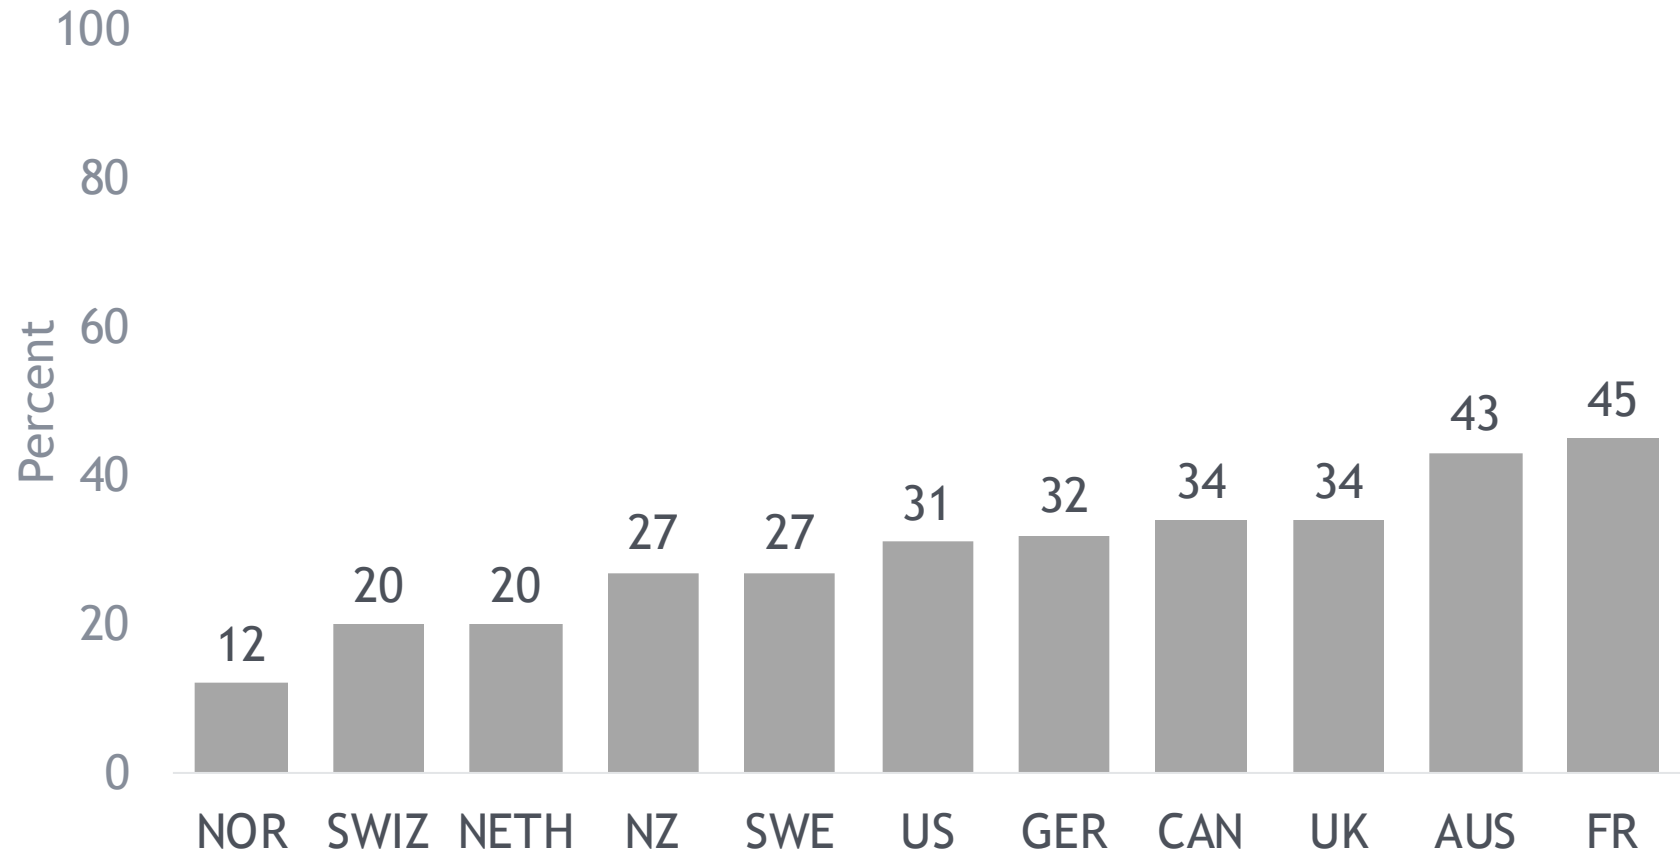

Home-based nursing provider coordination: Is usually advised of relevant changes in patient condition or status

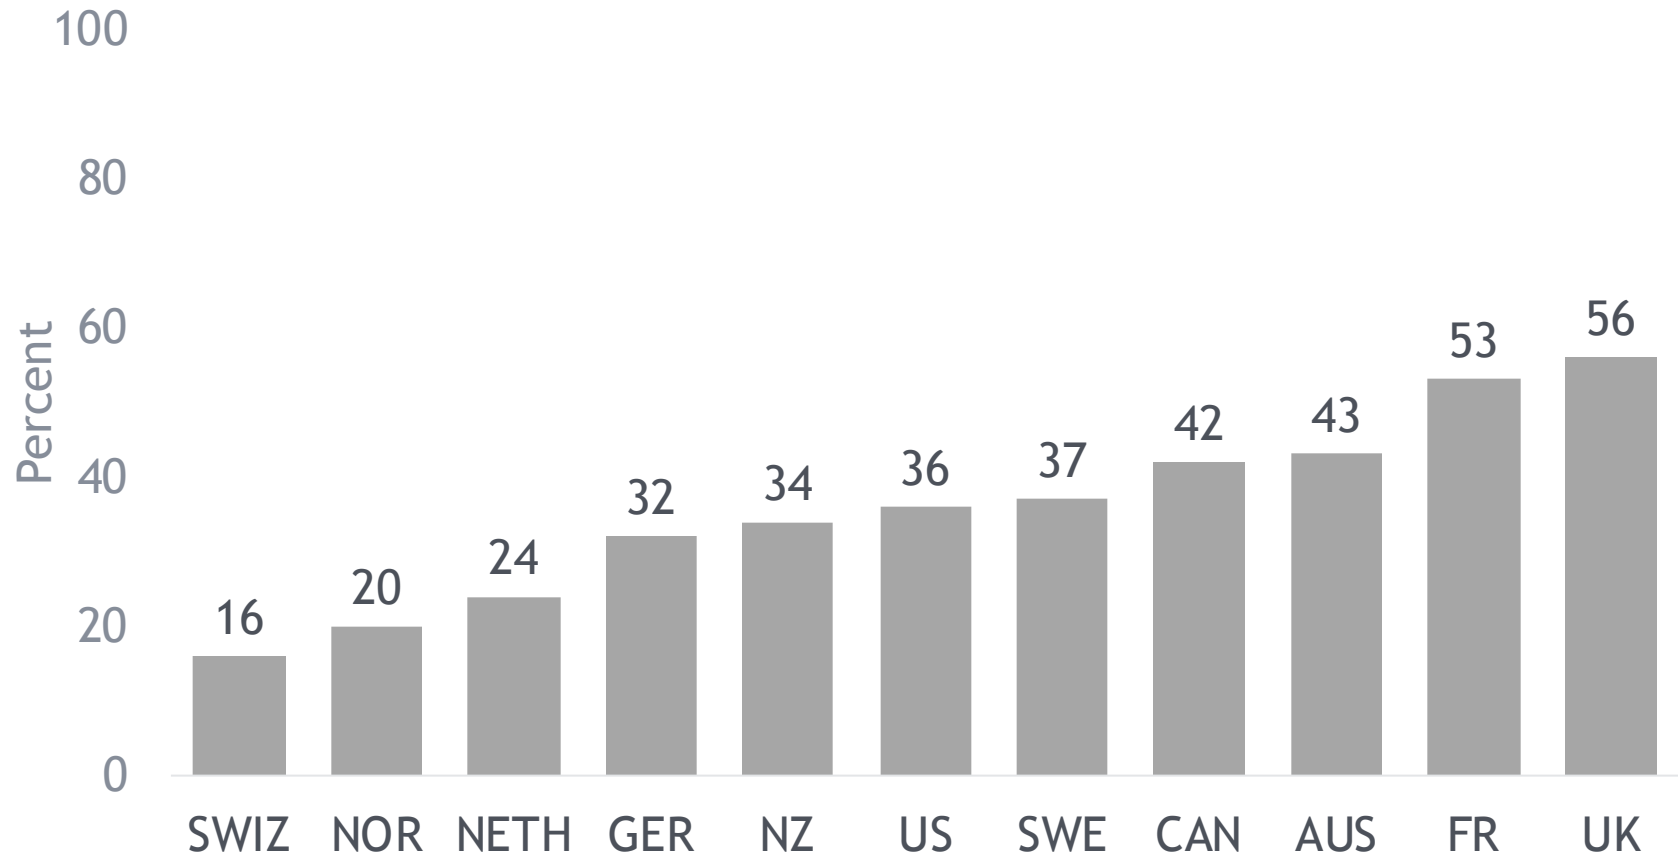

Frequently coordinates with social services or community providers

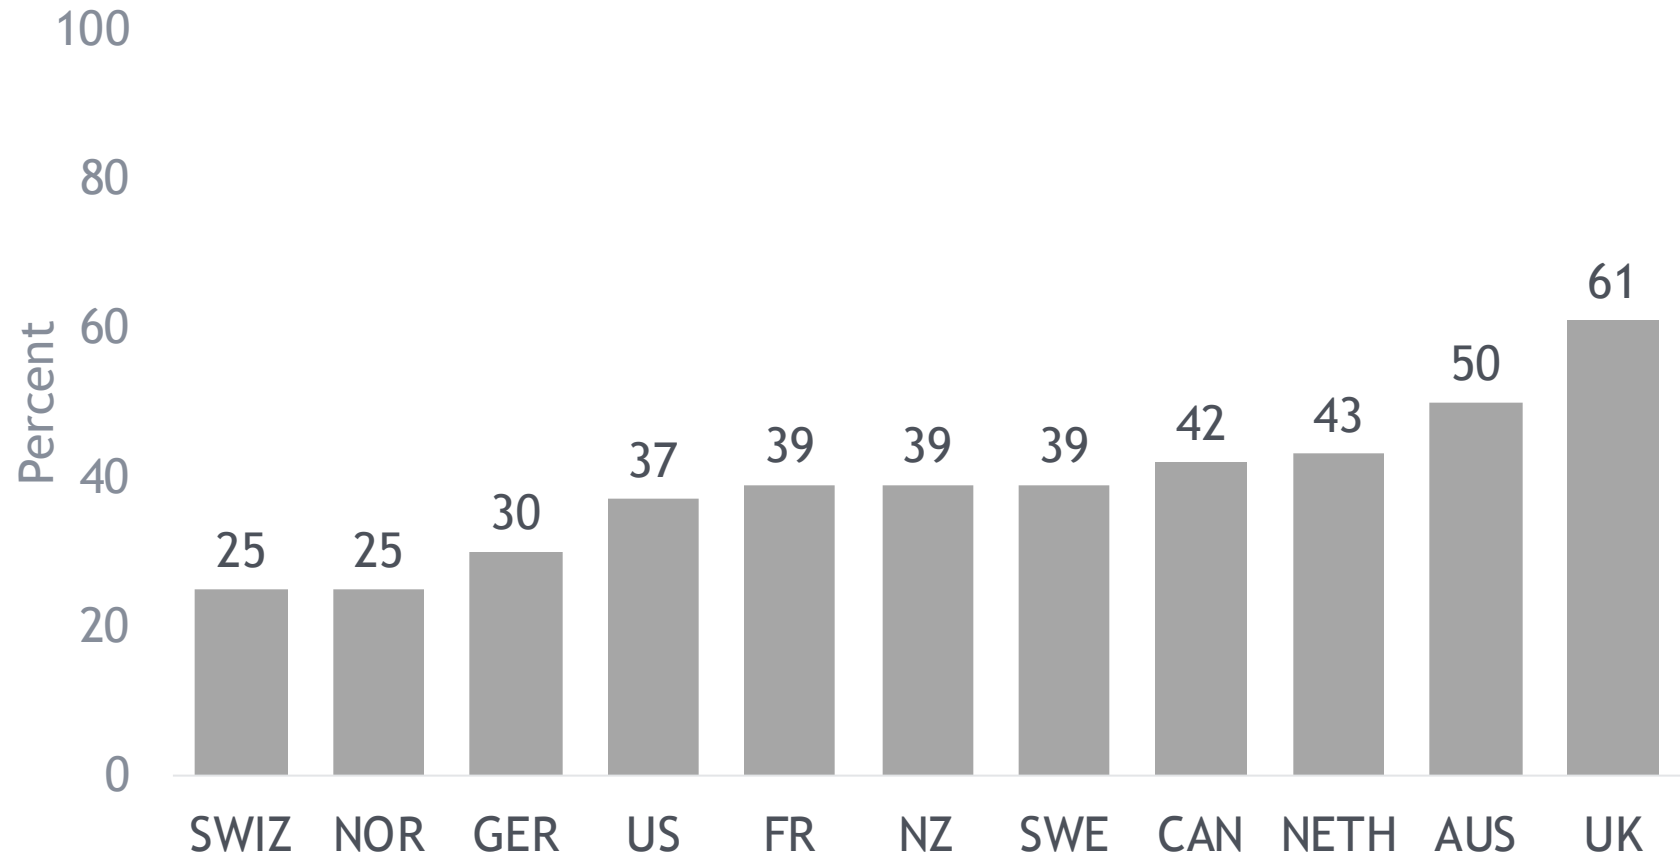

Lack of a referral system or mechanism to make referrals

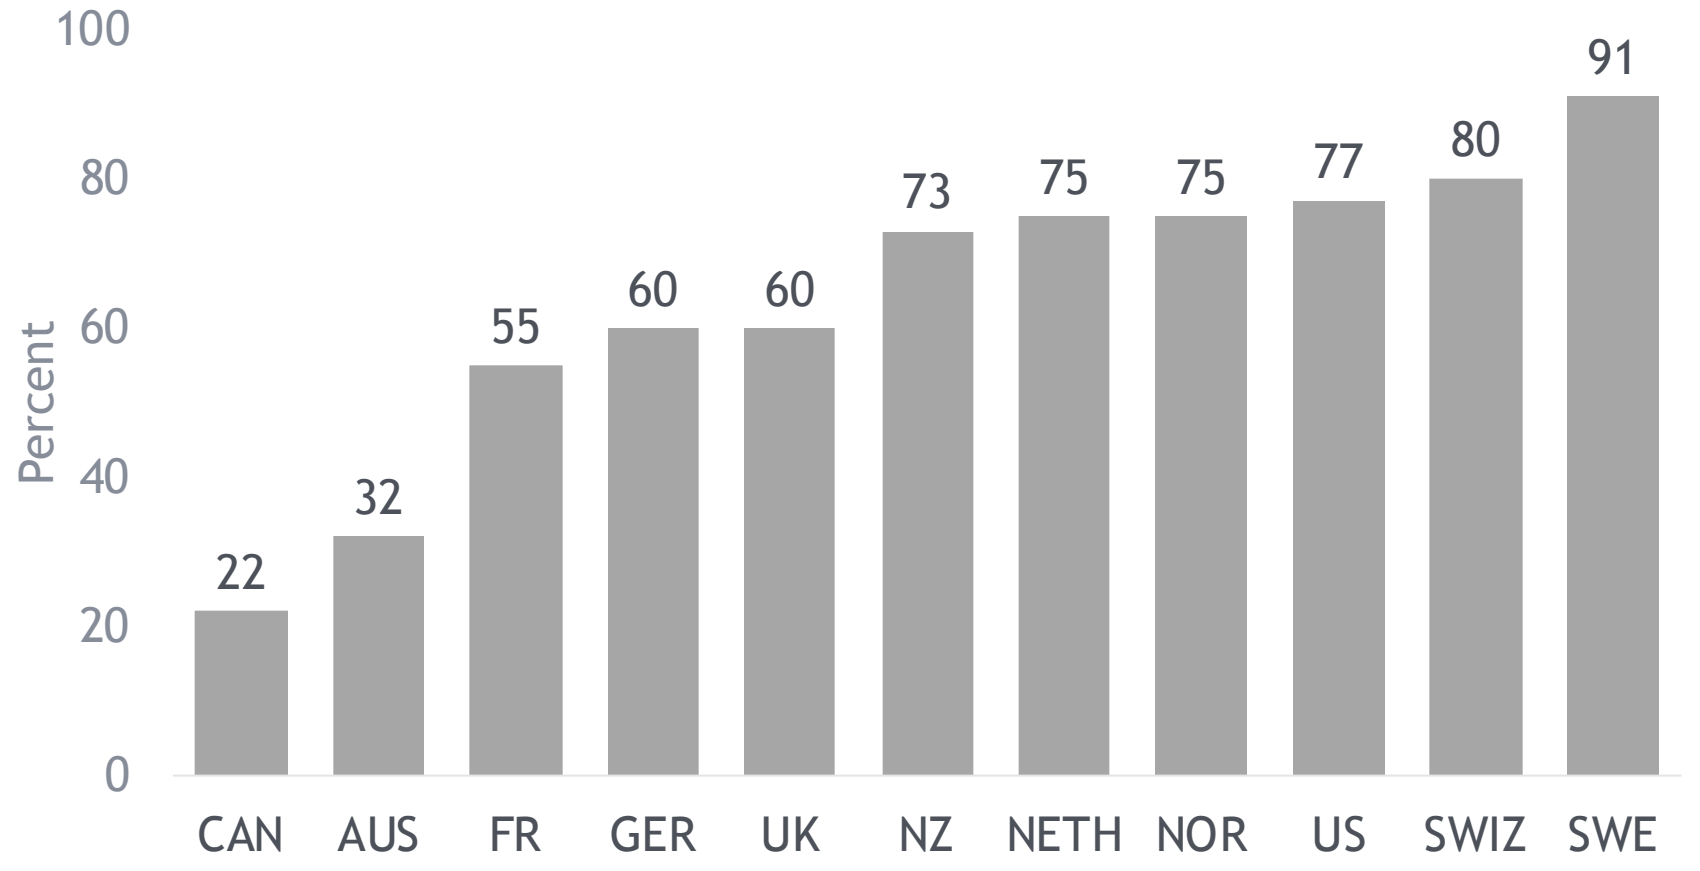

Inadequate staffing to make referrals and coordinate care with social service organizations

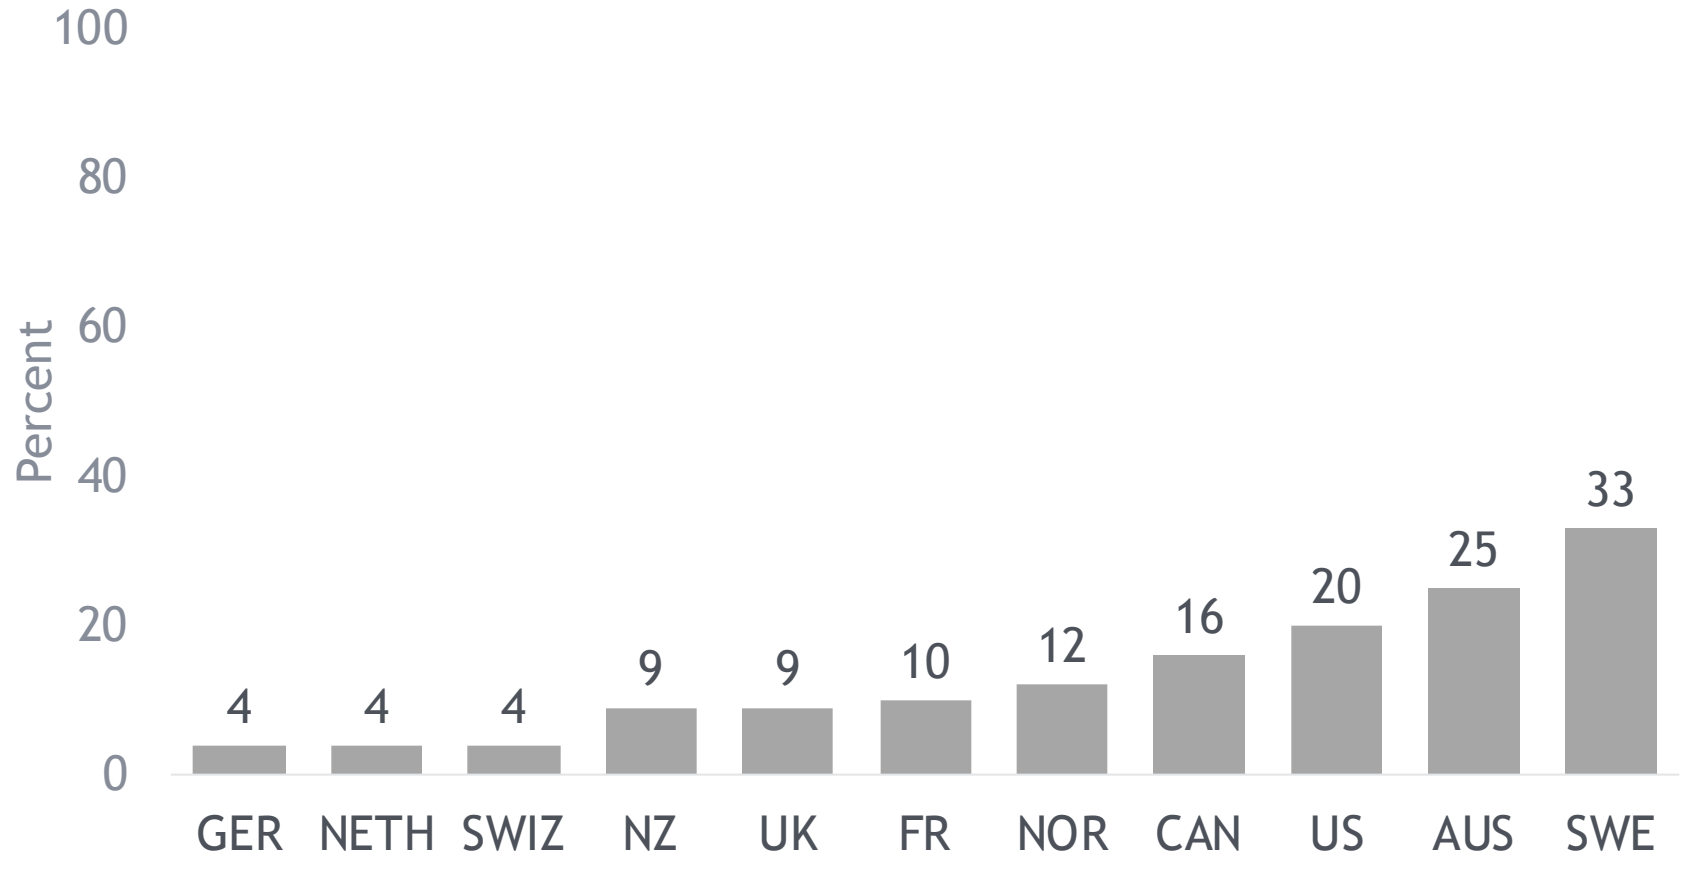

Lack of follow-up from social service organizations about services patient received or needs

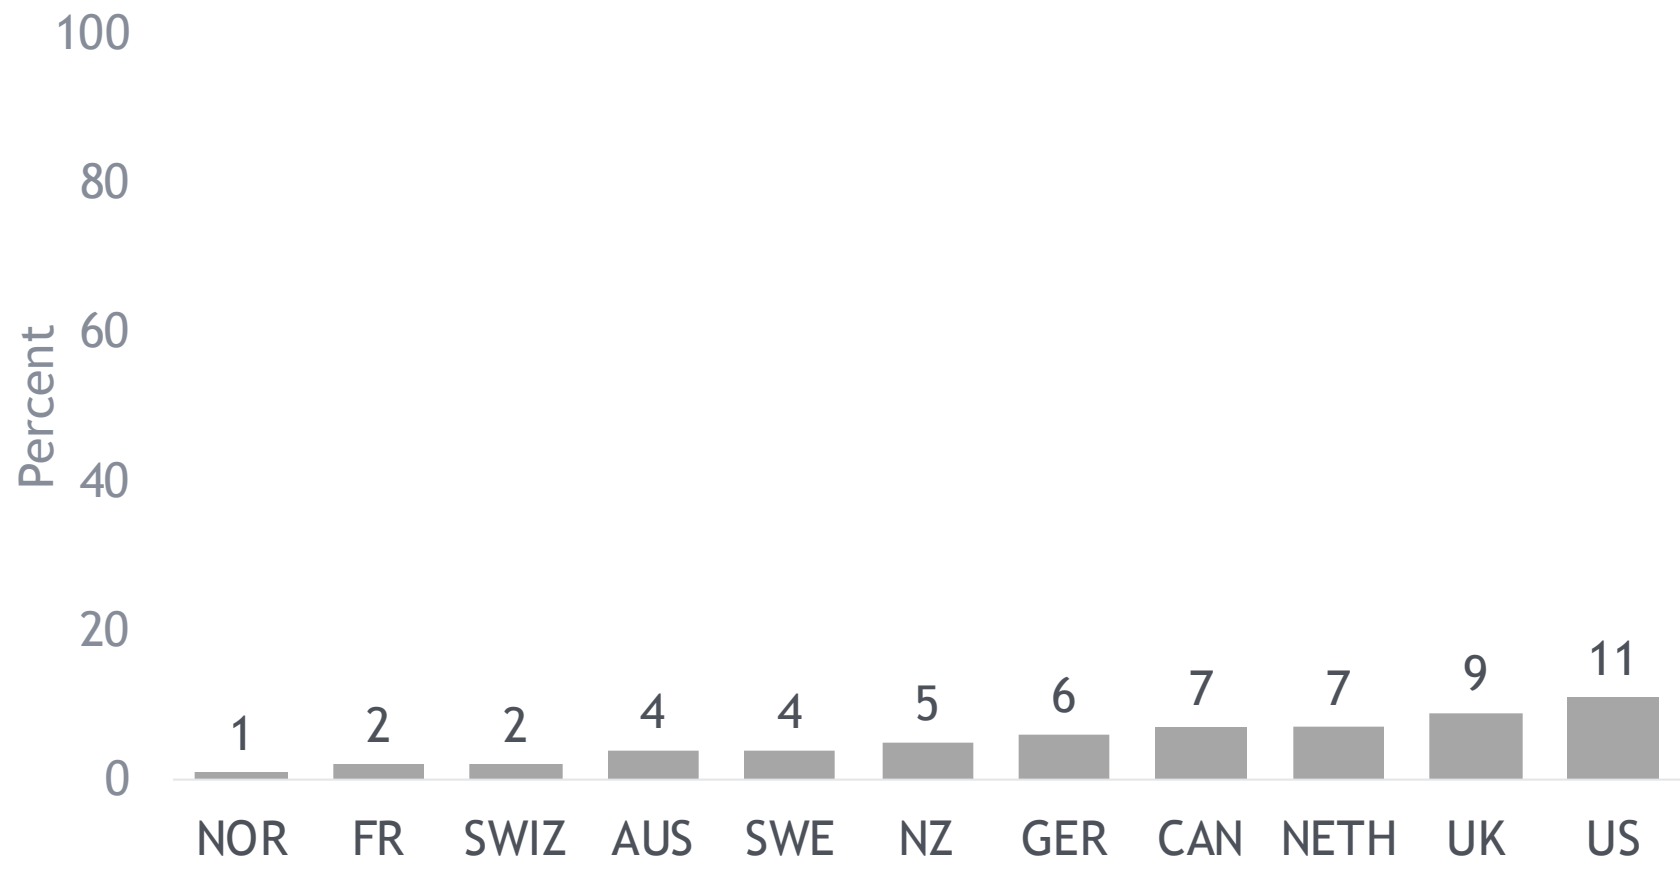

Practice offers patients option to communicate via email or secure website about a medical question

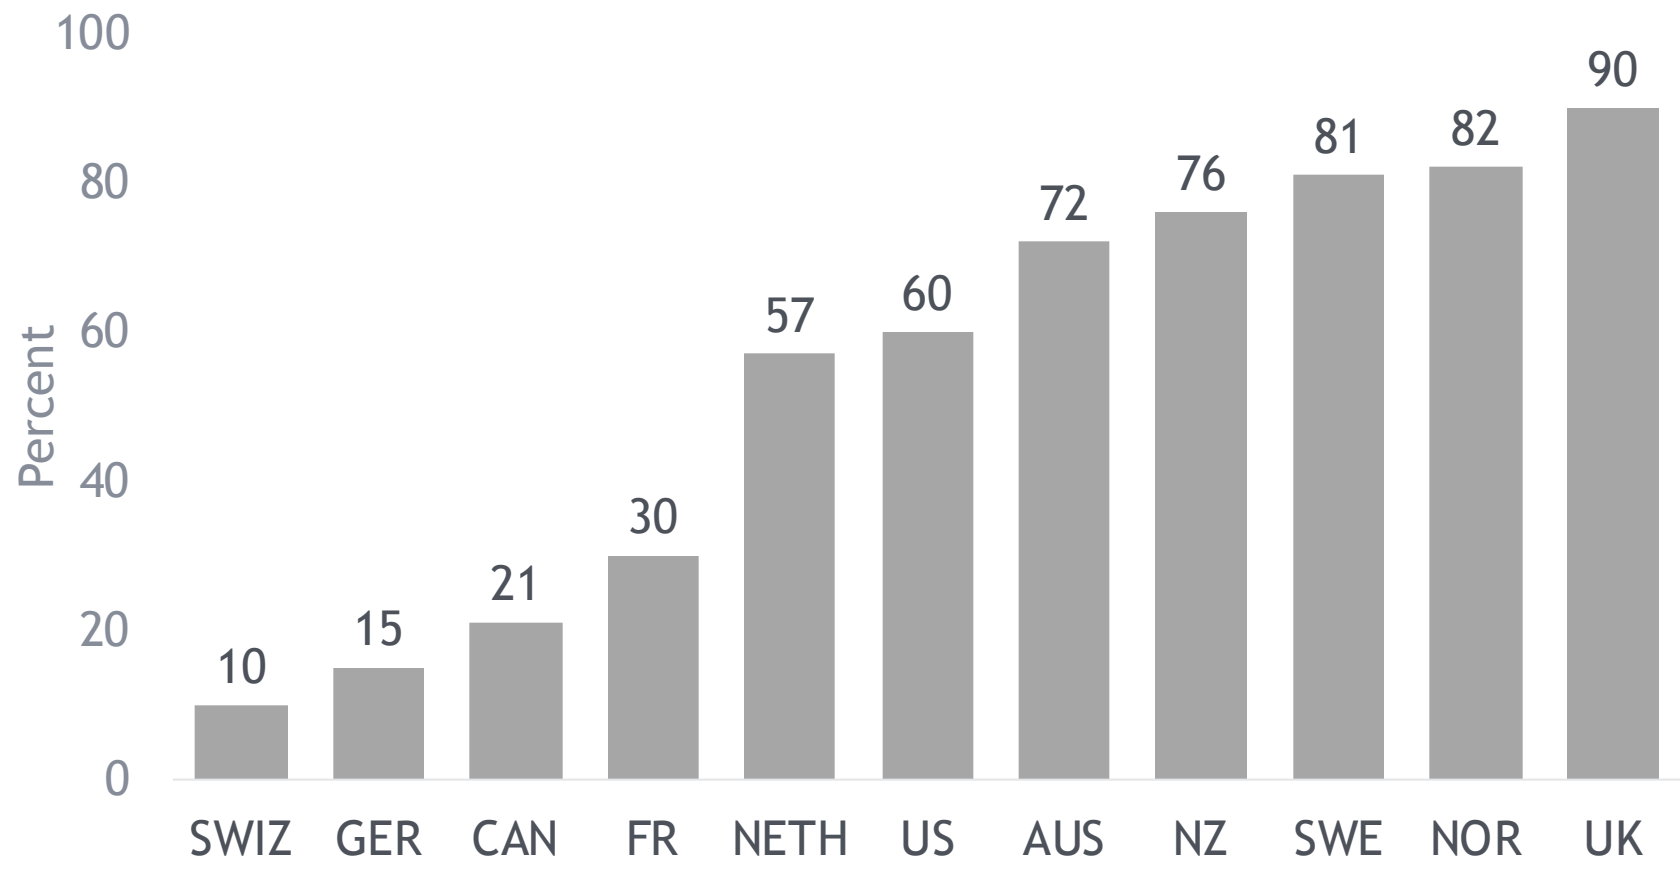

Practice frequently or occasionally uses video consultations

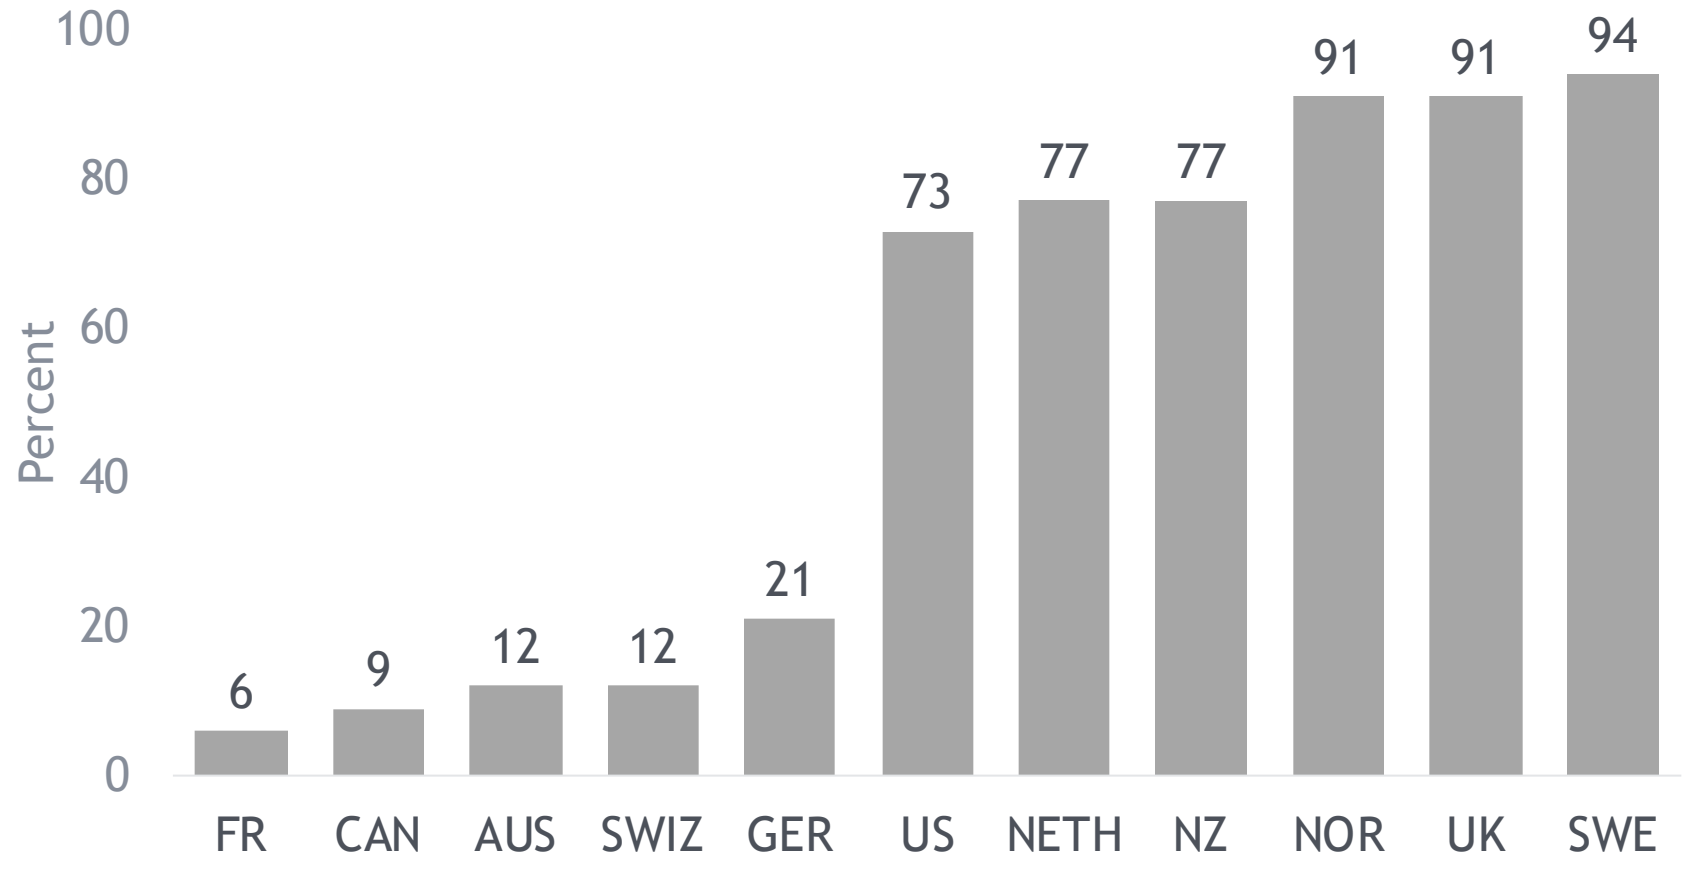

Usually or often uses remote monitoring or connected medical devices to monitor patients with chronic conditions

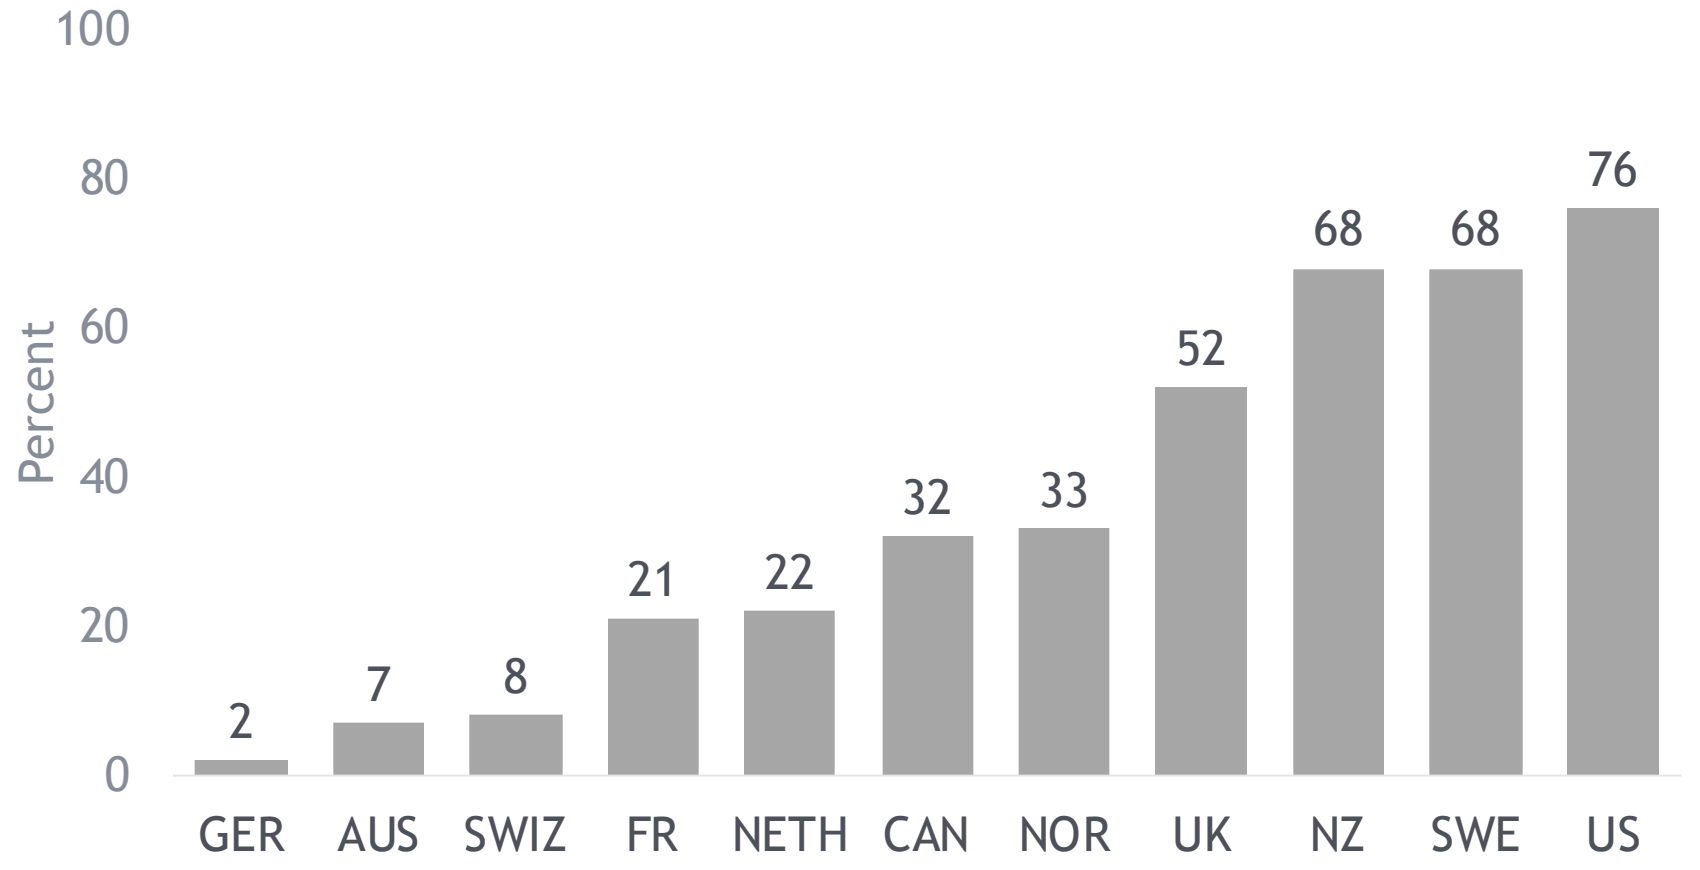

Practice offers patient option to request appointments online

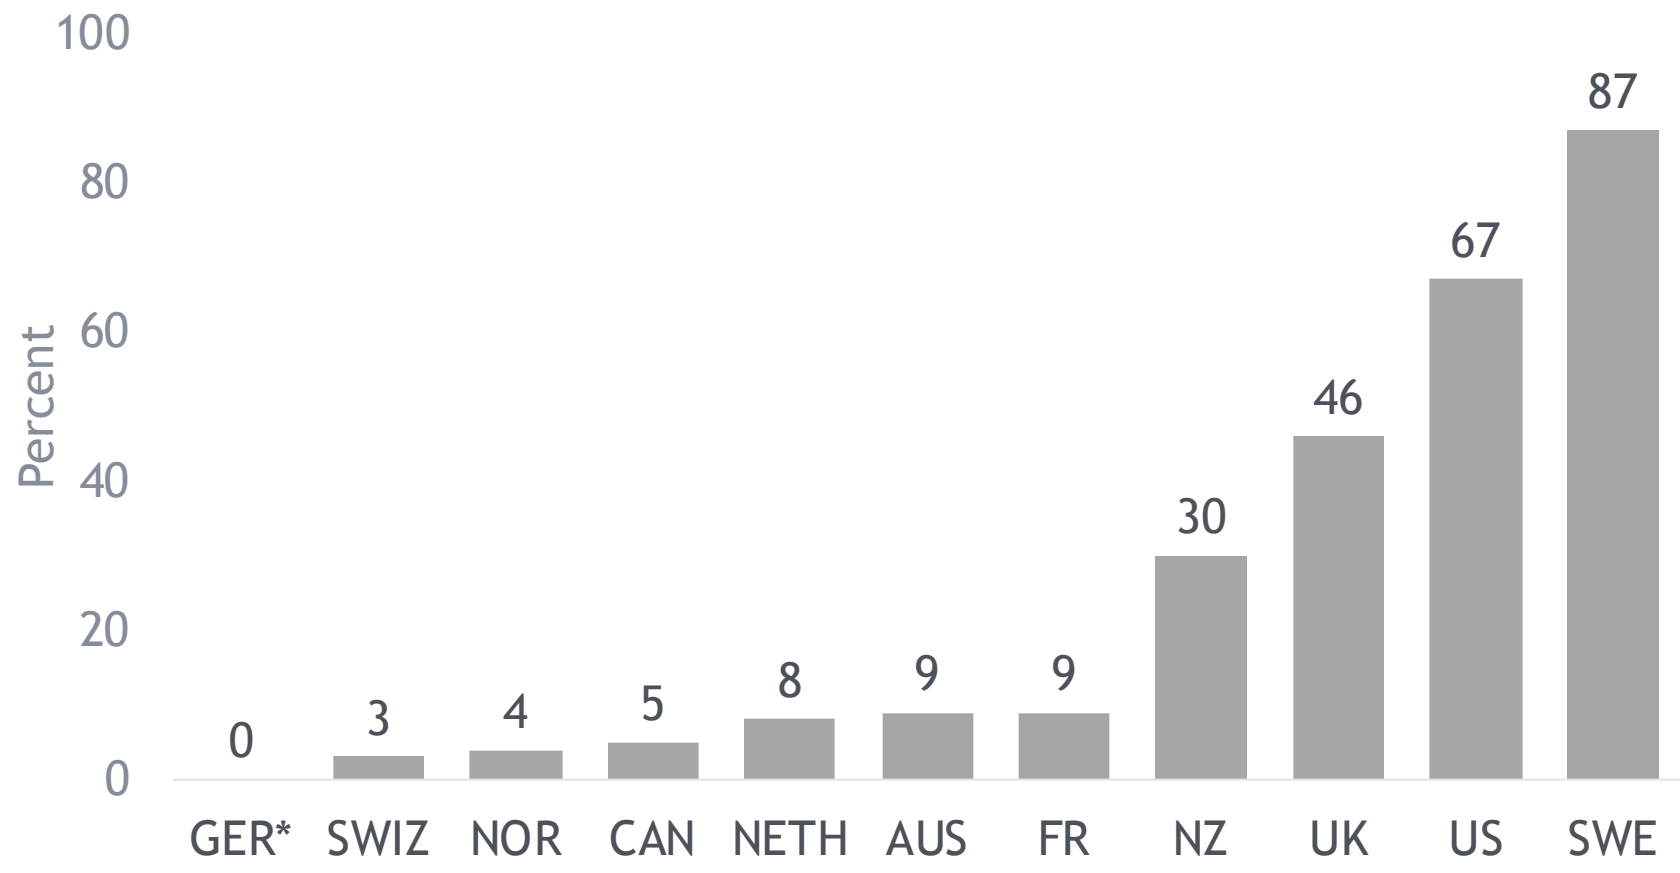

Practice offers patient option to request refills for prescriptions online

Practice offers patient option to view test results online

Practice offers patient option to view patient visit summaries online

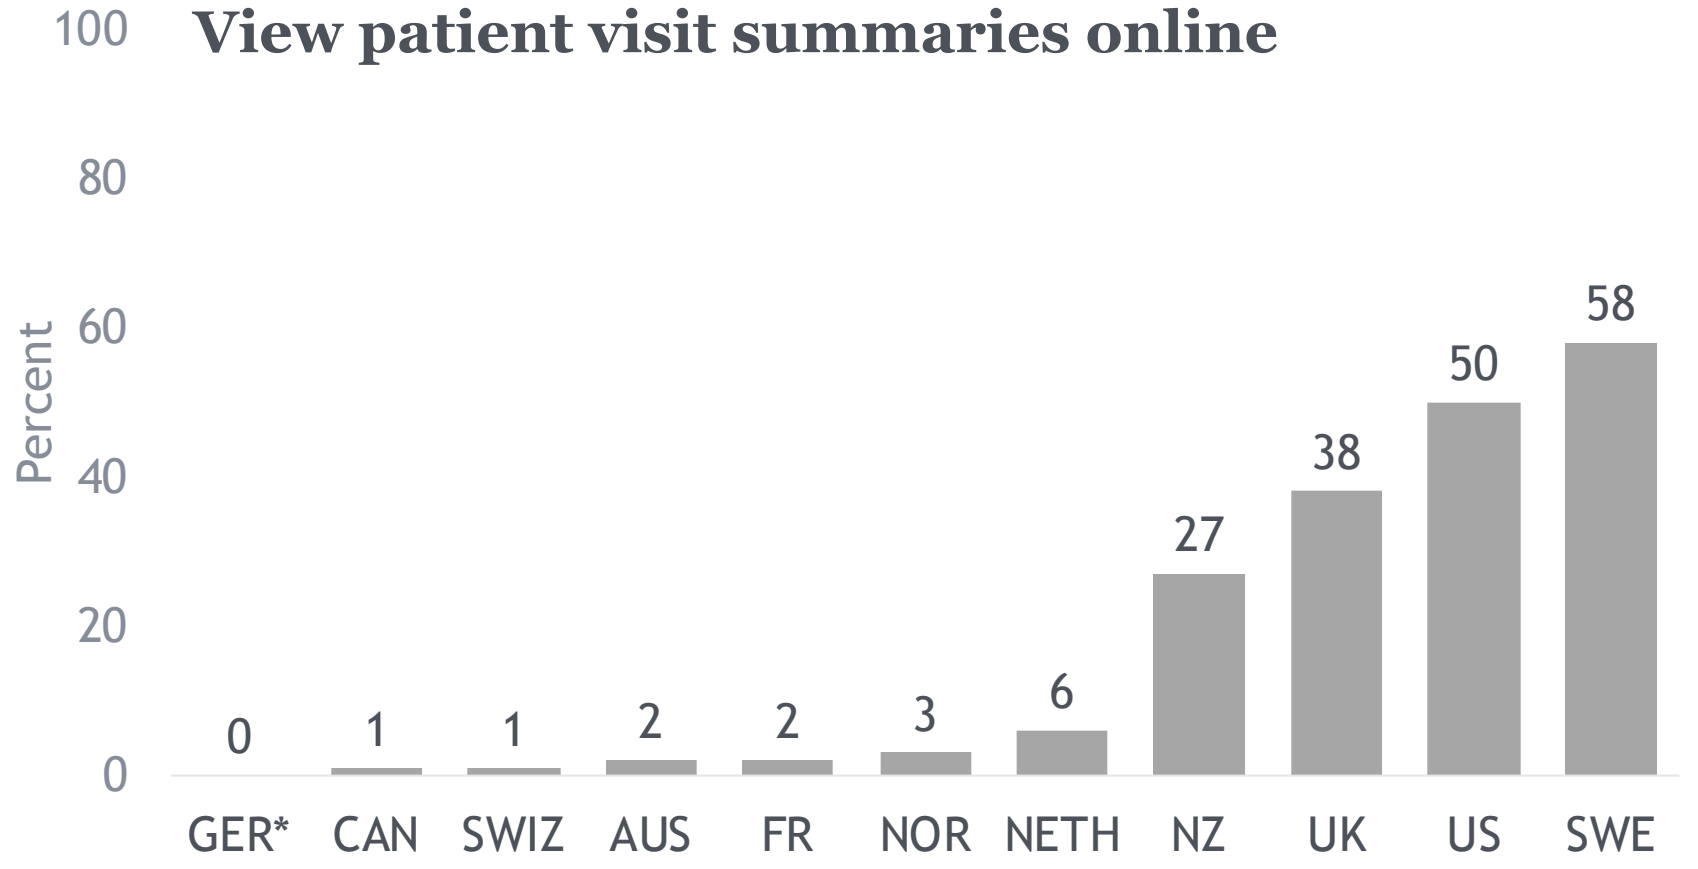

Practice offers all four of following functions:

Request appointments online

Request refills for prescriptions online

View test results online

View patient visit summaries online

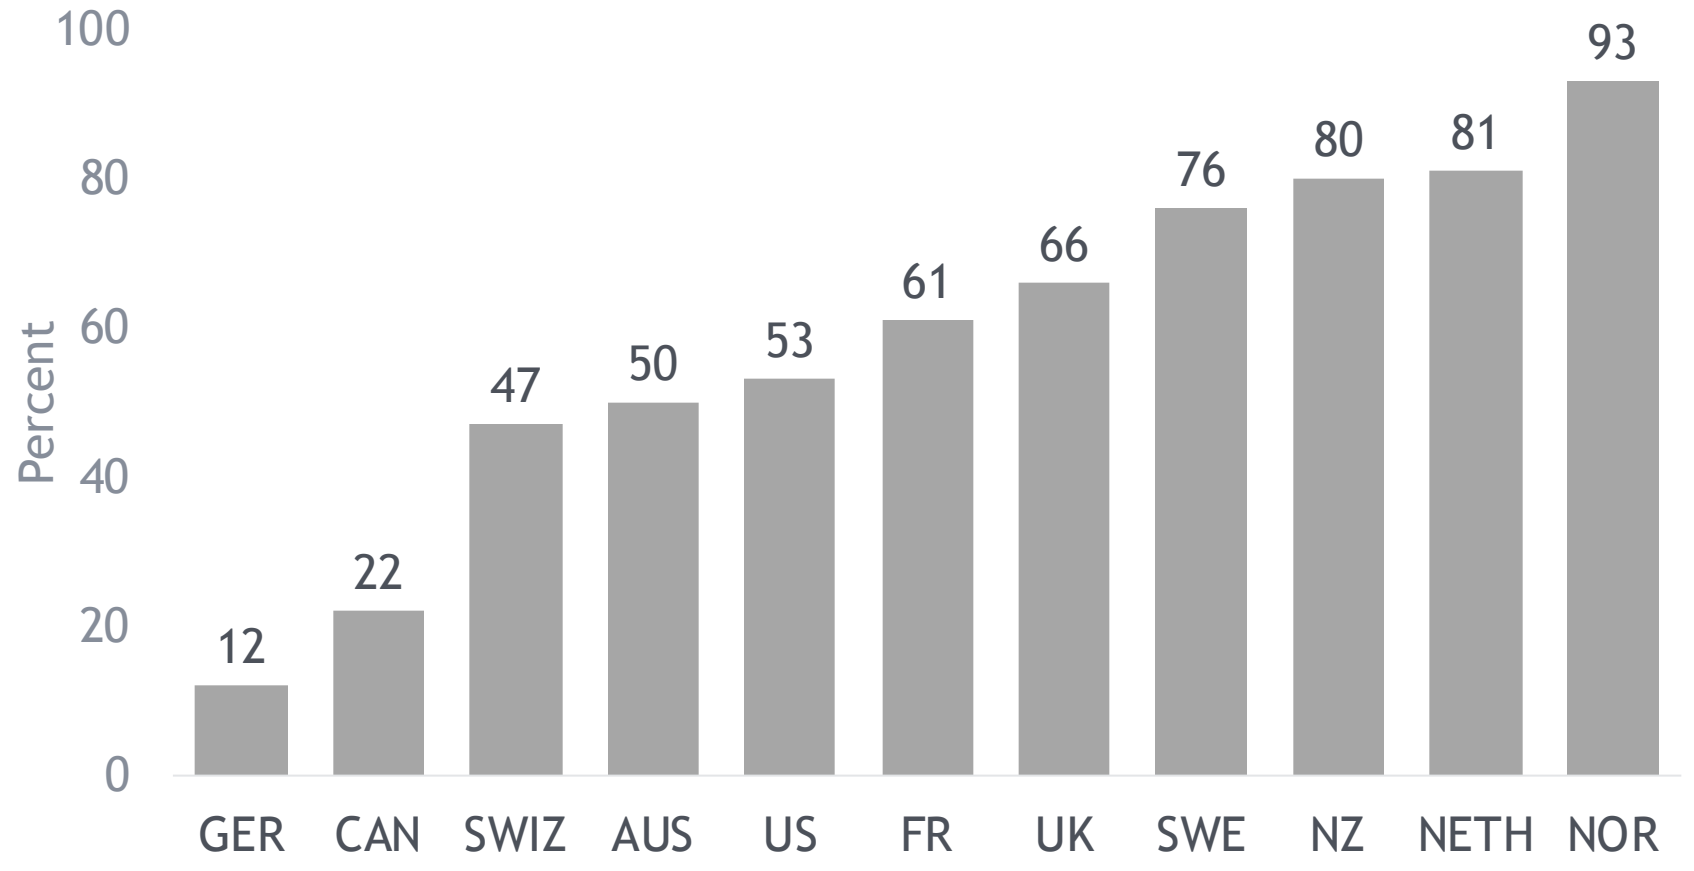

* GER response 0%.

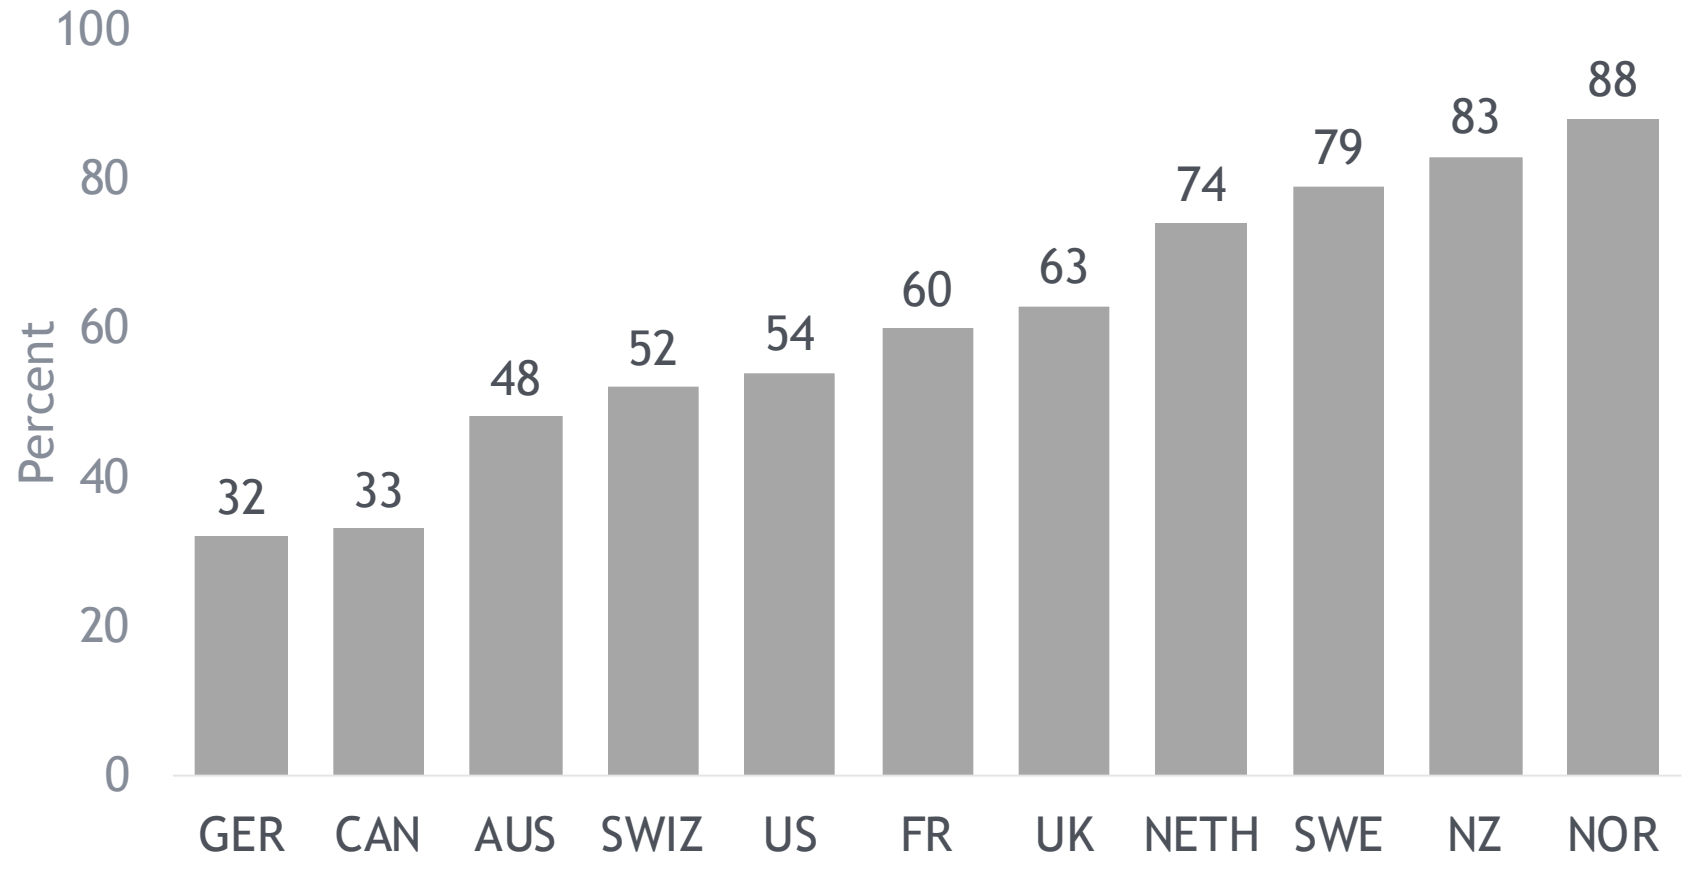

Data: 2019 Commonwealth Fund International Health Policy Survey of Primary Care Physicians.

Source: Michelle M. Doty et al., "Primary Care Physicians' Role in Coordinating Medical and Health-Related Social Needs in Eleven Countries," Health Affairs, published online Dec. 10, 2019.

Able to electronically exchange patient clinical summaries with any doctors outside practice

Able to electronically exchange laboratory and diagnostic test results with any doctors outside practice

Able to electronically exchange lists of all medications taken by a patient with any doctors outside practice

